VISION AND MISSION

UNIVERSITY OF IBADAN VISION FOR THE 21ST CENTURY: SECURING THE FUTURE

The vision of the founding fathers of the University College, Ibadan, which later became the University of Ibadan, Ibadan, was to make it a centre of excellence in academic learning. The College was conceived of as providing the human resources requirement for Nigeria's socio-economic and physical growth.

The University of Ibadan, being the oldest and one of the most reputable Nigerian universities, has articulated its vision and mission for the 21st Century in this way:

VISION

To be a world-class institution for academic excellence geared towards meeting societal needs

MISSION

* To expand the frontiers of knowledge through provision of excellent conditions for learning and research;

* To produce graduates who are worthy in character and sound judgement;

* To contribute to the transformation of society through creativity and innovation;

* To serve as a dynamic custodian of society's salutary values and thus sustain its integrity.

STRATEGIC OBJECTIVES

Consistent with its vision and mission statements, the University identified the following strategic objectives which have guided operational decisions at all levels of the institution:

- Re-awaken all staff and students to the need for rebuilding the University and, consequently, inducing a drastic attitudinal change towards achieving the goal, by way of more commitment, greater loyalty and diligence on the part of all concerned.
- Make a more determined effort to generate adequate funding for the University, and so to make it less dependent on government funding.
- Ensure that any amount of money received is optimally utilized.
- Significantly improve the conditions for learning and research within the institution.
- Increase substantially, and in virtually all disciplines, the number of highly-rated academics in Ibadan. Particular attention will be paid to science and science-related subjects, which have suffered the worst neglect over the years.

- To make the University of Ibadan, more responsive to the needs of the country, other universities and her graduates.
- To update and modify curricula for relevance to both national needs and global demands.
- To overhaul recruitment processes, and thereby ensure that only the best available hands are employed. The University will not allow extraneous factors like ethnic origin, race, and religion to stand in the way of appointing the best candidate in any given situation. Recruitment will, however, be as gender-sensitive as possible.
- To ensure that the university does not admit more students than it can cope with, taking into consideration the number of available staff and facilities on ground. However, to increase the number of people who can benefit from its services, the University will pursue vigorously, the provision of long distance learning opportunities.
- To have a campus where there is peaceful coexistence and in which members of staff of different disciplines and classes socialize with one another without inhibition, and staff and students alike relate and enjoy an environment conducive to the promotion of sound scholarship.

In conclusion, the University identified the resources required for the actualization of these new directions. A critical need or success factor, in this regard, is adequate funding. The University, therefore, is committed to sourcing for the required funding as would enable it to reposition itself as a foremost citadel of learning and repository of knowledge and excellent values in Nigeria, nay, the world.

HISTORY, ACT
AND
CONSTITUTION OF THE UNIVERSITY

HISTORY OF THE UNIVERSITY

The University College, Ibadan, was founded in 1948 on an old site previously used by the 56th Military General Hospital, about eight kilometers away from the present site. The University covers over 1,243 hectares of land generously leased by the chiefs and people of Ibadan for 999 years.

In the latter half of the nineteenth century, well-to-do Africans in Lagos met the need for higher education by sending their children overseas for professional training. Some of these returned to press for the establishment of institutions of higher learning in Nigeria. Not much progress was made until the 1930s but the Yaba Higher College (established in 1932, but formally opened in 1934) and the Yaba Medical School (established in 1930), which granted diplomas and certificates in selected subjects, hardly satisfied the aspirations of those who longed for university education.

The Yaba Higher College phase of education in Nigeria further illustrated the desire of Nigerians for degrees, diplomas and certificates which were not inferior to those awarded by universities in the United Kingdom and elsewhere. In view of the fact that British officials did not envisage self-government for Nigerians and since senior posts in the public service were reserved for expatriates, all the pleas for university education in Nigeria fell on deaf ears.

The British Government seriously considered the possibility of establishing universities or university colleges in the Commonwealth, and in West Africa, particularly, during World War II. The Asquith and Elliot Commissions, both set up in 1943, hreported on various aspects of this matter in 1945. The majority and minority reports of the Elliot Commission agreed on the establishment of a University College in Nigeria. The Asquith Commission emphasized the principles of a residential university college in a special relationship with London University, high academic standards in admissions and staffing, and autonomy. Both the Elliot and Asquith Commissions, which exchanged information, agreed that the Inter-University Council for Higher Education in the Colonies (later Overseas) was to advise the new University Colleges on how best to attain the objectives for which they were established.

With equipment transferred from Yaba Higher College, the 104 foundation students (including 49 students in teacher training and survey courses) began their courses at Ibadan, on 18 January, 1948 while the formal opening took place on 25 March, 1948. In February, 1948, London University allowed Ibadan its special relationship scheme. Arthur Creech Jones, then British Secretary of State for the Colonies, and an influential member of the Elliot Commission, turned the first sod at the permanent site of the University College, on 17 November, 1948, which became the University's Foundation Day.

For the foundation medical students, the facilities provided in 1948, by the Native Administration Hospital at Adeoyo and the Government Jericho Hospital, for which the Faculty of Medicine was responsible, were inadequate. Consequently, medical students of the earlier years went to University of London for clinical training. To provide more satisfactory clinical facilities at Ibadan, the Nigerian government made available funds for the building of a 500-bed University College Hospital, completed in 1957. Thereafter, medical students were fully trained in Ibadan. The first batch graduated in 1960.

In the 1971/72 session, the Jos Campus was established with a student enrolment of 101. On 25 September, 1975, the government announced the creation of a University of Jos, and in consequence, arrangements were made to transfer the students to Ibadan and the campus handed over at the end of the 1975/76 session. The government also announced the setting up of a new University College at Ilorin affiliated to the University of Ibadan.

STUDENTS' ENROLMENT

With the expansion of facilities at Ibadan, the number of students offered admission each year gradually increased. Compared to the 2013/2014 session, where the students' population for the various courses was 29,522 and over 16,000 for the Distance Learning programmes, as at the 2016/2017 session however, the students' population was 24,479 made up of 14,354 full-time undergraduate students, 9,345 full-time postgraduate students and 780 part-time postgraduate students.

GRADUATE OUTPUT

During the 2015/2016 academic session, a total of 10,064 graduands were awarded with various degrees of the University - 5,557 bachelor's degrees, 127 of which were in the First Class grade; 4,169 Higher Degrees and 449 Ph.D. Degrees.

At the November 2017 convocation ceremonies, a total number of 9,270 graduates were turned out as graduates of the University. While 5,629 graduated with bachelor's degrees, of which 186 were in the first class category; 3,238 graduated with higher degrees of PGD, Masters, MPH and M.Phil; 402 Doctorate degrees (Ph.D.) and one Doctor of Medicine (M.D.) degree.

STUDENTS' ACCOMMODATION

Larger admissions over the years and limited funds for providing accommodation gradually threatened the concept of a residential university, at Ibadan. From the 1972/73 session, students at Ibadan Campus were allowed to live off-campus in larger numbers. The existing halls of residence at the Ibadan Campus are overstretched in meeting the accommodation needs of students; therefore, married students are encouraged to live off-campus. The ten undergraduate halls of residence (Mellanby, Tedder, Kuti, Sultan Bello, Queen Elizabeth II, Alexander Brown, Independence, Nnamdi Azikiwe, Obafemi Awolowo and Idia) and the two postgraduate halls of residence (Tafawa Balewa, and Abdul-Salami Abubakar) have a total optimum capacity of nearly 7,500 students.

Until 1972, each hall of residence had its own catering facilities, but steps were taken during that year towards providing more centralized catering services. The Central Cafeteria, with a capacity for 1,600 students, was completed on 04 January, 1976. It catered for majority of the students. However, because of the large number of students, catering services continued to be provided in Independence, Nnamdi Azikiwe and Tafawa Balewa Halls until 1984 when catering services were totally scrapped in consonance with a Federal Government's directive.

STUDENTS UNIONISM

From its inception, the University encouraged student unionism and the Students' Union has, always, been an important feature of the University's existence. The Union has as its aims:

a. To promote the social, cultural, intellectual and sporting activities of its members,
b. To foster the general interests of its members and
c. To contact, co-operate and exchange ideas with other external organizations whose aims are acceptable to the Union.

The Students' Union has been an advocate of students' participation in University administration and since 1973, students have served on various committees, including the Consultative Committee on Community Development, the Students' Welfare Board, the Careers Board, the Library Committee, the Catering Board, the Sports Council, the Lodgings Bureau, the Students Disciplinary Committee and the Ceremonials Committee. In addition, all academic Departments have staff/student liaison committees.

However, in the 1991/1992 session, as a result of court injunctions, student unionism was suspended. Students' Union Transition Committees (SUTC) were constituted every session but through the intervention of the former Pro Chancellor and Chairman of the Governing Council, Chief Wole Olanipekun, SAN, OFR, student unionism was reactivated in the 2010/2011 session. Unfortunately, student unionism was again proscribed in the University during the 2016/2017 academic session, following the demonstration of acts of indiscipline and gross misconduct by students, resulting in the breakdown of law and order within and outside the campus, thereby bringing the University to disrepute.

STAFF

The premier University has always been blessed with high quality human resources. With steady nigerianization, and in the wake of a similar exercise from the 1950s in the public services of the Federation, more and more Nigerians took up appointments in the University. But in general, the University strove to maintain its historical complexion as an international community. The staff strength of the University as at 2015 stood at 1,549 academic, 2,269 administrative, professional & technical and 1,941 junior staff.

As at November, 2017 however, the University had a total number of 5,746 in its employment; 1,524 Academic Staff, 2,516 Senior Administrative, 1,407 Senior Technical Staff and 1,299 Junior Staff. Of the 1,524 academics, 410 are Professors, 120 Readers, 402 Senior Lecturers, 335 Lecturer I, 196 Lecturer II and 61 Assistant Lecturers. Over 60% of the academic staff possesses Ph.D. certification. The University has 450 Professors and Readers, 500 Senior Lecturers, and 699 other categories of lecturers.

FUNDING

Staff salaries and other recurrent expenditure besides capital works made the University College (later University) an expensive establishment. While the British Government, the Cocoa Marketing Board, the Nuffield Foundation, the United African Company, the Ford Foundation, the Rockefeller Foundation, and other interested bodies, inside and outside Nigeria made generous contributions towards the funding of capital projects, the recurrent expenditure has always been the responsibility of the Federal Government of Nigeria. Between 2000 and 2010, the John D. and Catherine T. MacArthur Foundation provided grants worth over $10 million to help the University reclaim its position as a world-class university. Such outside grants have in many ways assisted the academic development of the University particularly in postgraduate studies and staff development.

Over the years, the University had taken vigorous steps to solicit financial aid from well-meaning Nigerians and other friends. The response has been encouraging such that significant capital developments stimulated by major gifts from corporate entities and individuals were witnessed. The partners in progress included Shell Petroleum Development Corporation Nigeria; National Insurance Corporation of Nigeria; Schlumberger Nigeria Ltd; the U.I. Endowment Fund; the Education Trust Fund; the Central Bank of Nigeria; Hewlett Packard; Nigerian Breweries Foundation; British American Foundation; Ibadan Medical Specialists Group (IMSG), United Kingdom; GoldLink Insurance Plc., BOVAS & Company Limited and some state governments. Notable individual benefactors included Chief Bode Amao; Chief Kola Daisi; Alhaji (Dr.) S. O. Babalola, OON; Pastor Enoch Adeboye; Otunba Gbenga Daniel, former Governor of Ogun State; Mr. George Akume, former governor of Benue State; Chief Adebayo Akande; Dr. Emmanuel O. Egbogha; Professor mAboaba; Professor Edozien, Chief Wole Olanipekun, SAN, OFR; who donated a 65 Million Naira Law Lecture Auditorium to the University. The list is not exhaustive.

The University has continued to enjoy the benefaction of well-meaning Nigerians such as Otunba Subomi Balogun, CON who out rightly donated the over N2billion Otunba Tunwase National Paediatric Hospital, Ijebu-Ode to the University for the training of our medical students and for the provision of improved healthcare delivery to members of the Ijebu-Ode community and beyond; Alhaji Aliko Dangote who donated the sum of N250million towards the construction of the University of Ibadan Business School building project; The Rt. Hon. Chevalier U. J. Itsueli is also donating a multi-million Naira state-of-the art, Research Foundation Building which is presently under construction.

INSTITUTIONAL SUPPORTS

The University has received immeasurable supports and encouragements from relevant bodies and organs of government in the fulfillment of its mandate. These include:

The Ministry of Education

The Ministry has continued to offer unparallel support to the University. The tremendous backing of the Ministry has served as an impetus for the University to pursue its goal of being a producer of high level manpower for other universities and other sectors of the nation's economy. The goodwill and the political backing from government have given the University a first place among the competitors and peers.

The National Universities Commission (NUC)

The NUC has been living up to its expectation as a regulatory body. It has made genuine and positive contribution to the growth of the University in particular and has been in the forefront of tapping from the University's vast human resources for national assignments. It has given a public recognition to the University as the single highest producer of postgraduate degrees. The efforts of the Commission to raise the standard of university education through the various accreditation visits and the release of the result of the accreditation process are viewed as a right step in the direction of University education quality improvement. The recommendations of the NUC panel with respect to the institutional accreditation are being implemented. The NUC has also shown understanding to the University's peculiar status in Africa with regards to our Centres of Excellence.

The Tertiary Education Trust Fund (TETFund)

The support from TETund has greatly and positively impacted on the University especially in the area of staff development. The regular intervention is being judiciously used in line with the vision of TETFund and some of our members of staff benefitted immensely from the Academic Staff Training and Development (AST&D) for overseas training while the conference fund also assisted the University's efforts in sending members of staff for international conferences. During the 2016/2017 academic session, a total sum of N9,000,000.00 (Nine Million Naira) was allotted for TETFund Academic Staff Training and Development (AST&D) which three academic staff benefitted from. In addition, total sum of N22,047,860.00 (Twenty-two Million, Forty-seven Thousand, Eight Hundred and Sixty Naira) was expended on 12 academic staff under the TETFund Conference Attendance while 139 staff, cutting across all categories of staff (teaching and non-teaching) benefitted from the Conference Support Fund to the tune of N34,195,250.00 (Thirty-four Million, One Hundred and Ninety Five Thousand, Two Hundred and Fifty Naira)

DISTANCE LEARNING CENTRE (DLC)

a meritorious six years of coordinating and directing the affairs, activities and operations of the DLC, the tenure of the immediate past Director, Professor Bayo Okunade ended. The inauguration of a new directorate held on Monday, 13 February, 2017 with following administrative team: Professor Oyesoji Aremu, Director; Dr. David Okurame, Deputy Director (Administration) and Dr. M. A. Babatunde as the Deputy Director (Academic).

As part of the repositioning agenda of the new Administration, ad-hoc committees were set up to oversee different activities of the Centre. They include: UIODL Advisory Committee, DLC Advisory Committee, DLC Course Materials Development Committee, Editorial Board of Ibadan Journal and Annual Report committee, DLC Newsletter and Policy Brief Committee and the DLC Quality Assurance Committee. The Centre completed the installation of computers and full networking of two halls of its Computer-Based Testing Centre. The DLC CBT centre now has a capacity of 1,500 CBT Centre with three halls of 500 capacities each and another 500 capacity waiting hall. In line with the Centre's penchant for staff development, over thirty (30) members of staff of the centre were sponsored to attend national and international conferences and workshops within the period under review.

Different teams are however being expected from the National Universities Commission (NUC) for revalidation and validation exercise of the following courses:

Programmes for Revalidation
B.Ed. Library, Archival and Information Studies, B.Ed. Guidance & Counseling, B.Ed. Adult Education, B.Ed. Educational Management and B.Sc. Statistics

New Programmes Presented for Validation
B.A. History & Diplomatic Studies, B.Sc. Nursing, B.Sc. Sociology and B.Sc. Computer Science

Except for the Fast Track programmes in the Departments of Psychology and Political Science which are a year lesser than the normal duration, all DLC degree programmes run for 4 or 5 academic sessions depending on requirements presented at the point of entry.

EFFORTS TO GENERATE FUNDS

Several fund generating projects have been initiated by the current administration. The teaching and research farm has been repositioned both to conduct research and to engage in commercial ventures so as to generate funds for the University. The University Advancement Centre has been strengthened, being the arrowhead of fundraising for the University. Recently, the position of the Director of the Centre which was on contract basis was made substantive

The University of Ibadan International Conference Centre (UICC), built by the University Endowment Fund has been generating huge revenue for the Fund to support the University's operations since its official opening.

The University is exploring its goodwill to attract fund, and individual private developers are coming to the aid of the University.
The Administration has continued to utilize available resources to run the University as best as possible. Our current efforts include:

- Keeping the finances under check
- Spending according to budget and checking areas of wastes
- Running the University not only as an academic institution but also as a business venture so as to enable the University to reduce its dependence on funding from government.
- Operation of Finance Committees at the Departmental and Unit levels
- Pursuing additional ways of generating fund internally
- Fundraising through alumni and friends of the University for various projects
- Continued pressure on government for better treatment and attention
- Exploring new linkages, collaborations etc.
- Investing in fund generating projects- the University has invested in production of table water, dairy farm, and poultry, ram production and so on.

Alumni and Fund Generation

The University is involving her alumni/alumnae in various activities of the university, including those of raising funds and making contacts on behalf of University. A computer-based database of alumni/ae is now being populated. Efforts are being made to give due recognition to worthy alumni and motivating them to have a sense of belonging to the University.

CHALLENGES AND AIDS TO SUCCESS

Challenges

The main challenge is the adverse effect of the economy on the activities of the University. For a long while, the University was unable to receive enough funds from government to cover its personnel cost. The quantum of fund available for overhead is too meager to move the University towards realizing its vision. The University could not achieve its desire for a 24/7 power supply which is expected to be 'normal' for a university environment following the high cost of municipalities including cost of electricity distribution from the Ibadan Electricity Distribution Company (IBEDC). Provision of alternative power through installations of solar powered energy in administrative offices, lecture theatres and halls of residence; provision of diesel as well as raw water and maintenance of facilities have affected the University on many fronts. These factors, among others, have posed a serious drain on the University's meager fund, thereby distracting it from spending on core academic areas. Other challenges include: strikes by staff unions, weak mentoring, slow process of curriculum review, subtle resistance to students assessment of lecturers, low awareness/patronage of patented products by the private sector and lack of alumni support, natural disaster, cable damage, security challenges, budget versus Government release-unrealistic funding mechanism, mismatch between what is budgeted and released, monitoring overkill by regulatory and funding agencies; ageing facilities and campus security.

Aids to Success

Despite the problems, the University has continued to strive to achieve excellence in all its areas of operation. Well-meaning individuals and Bodies have contributed to success in achieving our goals and objectives so far. Benchmarks are being developed for quality assessment and improvements. A team approach has been brought into university management and this has helped in eliminating social vices like rumour mongering. In addition, unions on campus are working together to preserve the UI brand and to ensure that union activities are conducted in a civilized manner. The University is also forging ahead in fulfilling its vision for the future which include exploring new linkages and collaborations; exploring the goodwill of the University to attract funds; on-going talks with individual private developers; engaging the alumni and friends of the University for funding of various projects, and challenging the complacency of the community and stirring up the entire staff to rediscover the old time commitment and unity, so as to have a community undivided against itself, and to fast track the University's advancement to a world class status.

COLLABORATIONS AND PARTNERSHIPS

The University has made remarkable progress in collaborations and partnerships. These include the Pan African University (PAULESI) where some flagship programmes had taken off; Reproductive Health, Plant Breeding, Geosciences (with Petroleum option), Environmental Engineering, University of Swansea, England - sponsored Professional Master Degree in Biomedical Education with University of Ibadan as hub for students drawn from five other universities in West Africa; Joint M.Sc. degree in Project Management with the University of the West England (UWE); and a Memorandum of Understanding with the Nigerian Air Force. The University’s internationally funded Centres of Excellence and postgraduate programmes have grown in quality and quantity. They include: the Centre for Sustainable Development (CESDEV), Centre for Petroleum, Energy Economics and Law (CPEEL), Centre for Child and Adolescent Mental Health (C-CAMH), Institute for Infectious Disease and National Institute for Maternal and Child Health.

ACADEMIC AND PROFESSIONAL PROGRAMMES

The University runs academic programmes at the undergraduate and postgraduate levels and professional programmes at the postgraduate level. It has 76 undergraduate and 478 postgraduate programmes. New postgraduate programmes, academic and professional, have been proposed and approved by Senate to enrich the stable of postgraduate programmes in the University.

The Distance Learning programmes of the University have been revitalized to world standards of open and distance education. An ultra-modern complex to house the Centre has been completed to enable it function optimally. Faculties participating in the open and distance learning programmes are Education, Agriculture and Forestry, Science, Arts and the Social Sciences. All the undergraduate programmes are fully accredited by the National Universities Commission (NUC) and relevant professional bodies.

The University has also leveraged on the Pan African University Earth and Life Sciences Institute (PAULESI) to increase the proportion of foreign students in the University.

Some appreciable progress have been made in expanding and repackaging some of our under graduate programmes to meet the challenges of the 21st century. There is ongoing review of curricular as well as change of names of programmes to reflect modern trend and enhance the relevance of our products to the job market and national development. A new Faculty of Economics has been approved by the Senate of the University to house the Departments of Economics, Accounting, Marketing and Business Administration. This is being prepared for NUC resource assessment and approval.

The existing postgraduate programmes (M.Sc., M.Phil. and Ph.D.) in the Department of Zoology were reviewed and approved by the University Senate during the period, while the review of the B.Sc. programme is awaiting approval by the Senate. These programmes have been updated by reviewing existing courses and introducing new ones that will make the programmes relevant to present day trends. The reviews are to improve training in the Department to current international standards of scientific development. The department, in August 2017 hosted a hands-on-training workshop on venomics and antivenomics protocols aimed at equipping students and technologists attached to the Physiology laboratory with skills on vitro and in vivo protocols for evaluation of different snake’s venom toxicity and antivenom efficacy. The department, apart from signing a 5-Year MoU with Kunming Institute of Zoology, Chinese Academy of Sciences, Kunming, China also has other research collaborations with colleaguesin other institutions of higher learning locally and internationally.

The Department of Mathematics in May 2017 hosted an International Conference on Contemporary Mathematics and the Real World aimed at providing a platform for researchers in Nigeriaand around the world, including postgraduate students, as well as practitioners in the nation's industries to showcase their current results in various key ares of Mathematics and their diverse applications. The department also hosted in June, 2017, the CIMPA Research School on Combinatiorial and Computational AlgebraicGeometry, targeted at faculty and advanced graduate students from Nigeria and neighbouring countries.

The Department of Pharmaceutical Microbiology of the Faculty of Pharmacy recorded research breakthroughs in:

i. Anti-Helicobacter pylori activity of some Nigeria medicinal plants
ii. Anti-typhoidal activity of a Nigeria medicinal plant: two active pure compounds isolated.
iii. Probiotic activity of some lactic acid bacteria against urina ry tract infections.
iv. Elixir Formulation with methanolic extract of Garcinia kola Heckel seed against microbial agents of respiratory infections.
v. Activity of honey and methanolic extract of Garcinia kola Heckel seed against a gentamicin-resistant burn wound strain of Pseudomonas aeruginosa.

Following the approval of the splitting of the former Faculty of Agriculture and Forestry into two by the National Universities Commission (NUC), the Faculty of Renewable Natural Resources officially took off on 01 August, 2017. Prior to this however, NUC had earlier given approval on 13 July, 2016 for the splitting of the Department of Forest Resources Management into two namely: Department of Forest Production & Products and the Department of Social & Environmental Forestry. With these development, the Departments in the Faculty of Agriculture anf Forestry includes: Agricultural Economics, Agricultural Extension & Rural Development, Agronomy, Animal Science and Crop Protection & Environmental Biology while those in the Faculty of renewable Natural Resources includes: Acquaculture and Fsheries Management, Forest Production & Products, Social and Environmental Biology as well as Wildlife and Ecotourism Management.

ACADEMIC AND RESEARCH THRUSTS

The University has made considerable progress in its bid to make significant contributions to research and scholarship. As a research university, it has leveraged on its high calibre of staff and quality students to attract funds and international partnerships involving staff and student exchanges. Apart from the various Centres of Excellence it has established through successful participation in international proposal writing and competition, it has further developed competence in the staff to effectively compete for global research funds.

A UI Research Fund (UI-RF) has been established in further pursuance of these. The UIRF gave out about Fifty Million Naira (N50m) grants to seven projects in the maiden award edition in July 2014. In November 2017, the U.I. Research Foundation developed a national "Think Tank" initiative, designed to facilitate translate research to innovations, novel strategies, as well as provide useful evidence for policies to strengthen the contributions of Agriculture, Energy, Health, Infrastructure and national security to economic development of Nigeria. The national Think Tank initiative also serves as a capable platform for facilitating the development of "knowledge economy" for the Nigerian nation. This platform, is also expected to become a significant regional hub to foster global partnerships for promoting translations of research outcomes of high scholastic standard to evidence for pragmatic policies. The platform was launched in partnership with the chartered Institute of Bankers of Nigeria (CIBN), the International Institute of Tropical Agriculture (IITA), Nigerian Institute of Medical Research (NIMR) and the institute for Peace and Strategic Studies (IPSS). These partnerships will provide a spring board for public-private sectors for promotion of a sustainable knowledge economy and efforts to make research count for national development.

The College of Medicine in keeping with global operations in medical schools in the 21st century of a medical education has revised and implemented its curricula with the establishment of a Medical Education Unit. Lecturers in the College of Medicine are currently undergoing pedagogy training to further improve teaching methods. Teaching facilities have been upgraded with alternate power supply to enhance learning. Availability of internet facilities in the College has improved the webometric ranking of the University. The College E-Library is functional and accessible to students coupled with a well stocked medical library. Transportation facilities are provided for students on outside posting and students are taught in conducive environment with well equipped laboratories

The Faculty of Dentistry was in the last two years not only actively involved in the Teaching Laboratory Demonstration to dental and medical students; it also hosted, seminars, clinical/journal meetings for professional postgraduate students and resident doctors, The following are the new academic programmes in the Faculty: Master in Dental Surgery, Master and Diploma in Dental Public Health (MDPH), Master and Diploma in Forensic Odontology and the Ph.D programmes in Dentistry

The various contributions of class sets to projects in the College has been of tremendous benefit to both staff and students. The College is consolidating on the numerous feats it has recorded over the last decades in the provision of unique mode of community-based health care deliveryand training. The Ibarapa programme which is a major outreach of the College has won a number accolades in rural health and surgery. In 2009, the centre was the subject of the award winning documentary titled, "Innovation for Africa: Uncommon Service". The centre has been a major destination for training in Community Medicine for students from all over the world. In the same vein, the over N2billion donated hospital comples, Otunba

Tunwase National Paediatric Centre, Ijebu Ode (OTNPC), Ijebu Ode has been a major avenue for Town-to-Gown effort of the College Administration. Health care delivery at the centre has been expanded beyond the traditional scope of Paediatrics. The centre is now positively impacting on the immediate community more and more

In its bid to improve capacity building, the College of Medicine, within the period under review, supported both teaching and non-teaching members of staff and even students to attend seminars, conferences and workshops within and outside the country. The College of Medicine through the Medical Education Partnership Initiative of Nigeria (MEPIN) organized the Training of Trainers' Workshop in conjunction with North-Western University, Chicago on Responsible Conduct of Research; Grantsmanship; Data Analysis/Manuscript Writing and Research Methodology. Training was also conducted in conjunction with the America Heart Foundation for academic members of staff and students on basic life support.

The University has taken strategic steps to consolidate the traditional postgraduate programmes and broaden the professional programmes to make them more practical-oriented and relevant to the work environment. Newly introduced professional programmes are targeted to be multidisciplinary and market-driven. The University is exploring the possibility of offering joint degrees with selected highly rated universities. The Pan African University's (PAU) Life and Earth Sciences (including Agriculture and Health) has enrolled students, a significant proportion of which are foreign students.

PAULESI represents the West African Hub of the Pan African University, domiciled in the University of Ibadan. PAULESI offers four programmes with options in Reproductive Health Science (Reproductive Health and Reproductive Biology options); Geosciences (Petroleum Geoscince and Mineral Exploration option); Plant Breeding; Environmental Management; Veterinary Medicine (Avian Medicine, Vaccine Production and Quality Control); Medicine Plant Research and Drug Development as well as Sport Development and PolicyManagement.These programmes are offered at the Masters and Doctorate levels. The institution in February 2018 presented the third batch of successful forty nine (49) students at the Masters and two (2) at the Doctorate levels with the following distribution for graduation: Master of Health Sciences in Reproductive Health – 12 students; Master in Petroleum Geoscience – 8 students; Master in Mineral Exploration Geoscience – 6 students; Master in Plant Breeding – 13 students; Master in Environmental Management – 10 students as well as Ph.D in Environmental Management – 2 students

WEBOMETRIC RANKING

The University has continued to provide leadership as the nation's Premier University. It has retained its 1st position in Nigeria in the 2017 and January 2018 ranking and it presently occupies the 10th position in Africa in the July 2017and 1099 in the Webometrics ranking of World Universities.

ADMINISTRATION

VISITORS

The Academic Board set up under the University College Ordinance (No. 25 of 1948) gave way to the Senate under a new law in 1954. Under that Ordinance (No. 10 of 1954), a recognized Council was also established. The membership of the Council changed triennially. With academic independence, the University had a new Act in 1962 which with subsequent amendments in 1972 and 1976, has remained the basic constitution. That constitution provides for Council, Senate, Congregation, Convocation, and such officers as the Visitor, Chancellor, Pro-Chancellor, Vice-Chancellor, Deputy Vice-Chancellors, Registrar, Bursar and Librarian.

Despite changing political and constitutional arrangements, the independent University of Ibadan has been generally fortunate in its leadership. The Visitor to the University has always been the Head of State. Ibadan has, thus far, had fourteen Visitors since it became independent: the Rt. Hon. Dr. Nnamdi Azikiwe, M.A. (Linc.) M.Sc. (Penn.), Hon. LL.D. (Linc.), Hon. D. Litt. (Nig.) (1963-1966); Major-General Yakubu Gowon (1966-1975), Lieutenant-General Olusegun Obasanjo was the Visitor from 1976 to 1979. The tenures of two other Heads of State – Major-General Aguiyi-Ironsi and Brigadier Murtala Ramat Muhammed were so short that they had little time to relate with the University in their capacities as Visitors. With the advent of civilian administration in 1979, General Obasanjo was succeeded by President Shehu Shagari, GCFR as the Visitor to the University (1979-1983). On 31 December, 1983, following the military take-over, Major-General Muhammadu Buhari, CFR, as the Head of the Federal Military Government, Commander-in-Chief of the Armed Forces, became the Visitor to the University. Following a military coup on 27 August 1985, he was succeeded as the Visitor by Major-General Ibrahim Badamasi Babangida, CFR, President, Federal Republic of Nigeria, Commander-in-Chief of the Armed Forces, who was succeeded briefly by Chief Ernest Shonekan, the Head of the Interim Government in 1993, while General Sanni Abacha succeeded Chief Shonekan as the Visitor to the University on November 17, 1993. General Abdusalami Abubakar, GCFR became the Visitor on June 08, 1998, immediately after the death of General Abacha.

Following the return of civilian administration on 29 May, 1999, Chief Olusegun Obasanjo, GCFR, became the Visitor, for the second time. Having spent two terms, he successfully handed over power to Alhaji Umaru Musa Yar'Adua, GCFR, who was Visitor from 29 May, 2007 until his death on 05 May, 2010. Dr. Goodluck Ebele Jonathan, GCFR was sworn-in as President, Commander–in-Chief of the Armed Forces on 06 May, 2010, thus becoming the Visitor to the University. The current Visitor who is also the President and Commander-in-Chief of the Armed Forces of the Federal Republic of Nigeria, Muhammadu Buhari, GCFR was sworn-in on 29 May, 2015

CHANCELLORS

Ibadan's first Chancellor was the late Alhaji, the Rt. Hon. Sir Abubakar Tafawa Balewa, P.C., K.B.E, the first Prime Minister of independent Nigeria who died in the military coup of January 1966. His successor in office was Sir Kashim Ibrahim, GCON, K.C.M.G., C.B.E., Hon LL.D. (Ibadan), one of the most respected public figures in Nigeria, who served as the Chancellor for nearly a decade before he was appointed the Chancellor of the University of Lagos, in 1975. The next Chancellor, who was inducted on 24 April, 1976, was His Highness, Alhaji Ado Bayero, CFR, Hon. LL.D. (Nigeria), Hon. LL.D. (Ibadan), the Emir of Kano. He was succeeded on 01 September, 1984 by His Highness, Omo N'Oba N'Edo Uku Akpolokpolo, Oba Erediauwa, C.F.R., B.A. (Cantab), Hon. LL.D. (Ibadan), Hon. LL.D. (Zaria), Oba of Benin. The Chancellor was inducted on 17 November, 1984. Thereafter, His Royal Highness Orchivirigh Alfred Akawe Torkula, Tor TivIV, was inducted on 17 November 1994. All of these men served Ibadan with great devotion and commitment and brought great dignity to its annual Foundation Day Ceremonies. In moments of crisis, the University profited immensely from their wealth of experience and the high regard in which they are held by the public and those at the helm of affairs.

The immediate past Chancellor was His Highness, Alhaji Ado Bayero, CFR, the Emir of Kano. He was installed on 17 November, 2001. Alhaji Ado Bayero joined his ancestors on 06 June, 2014. His Eminence, Alhaji Muhammadu Sa'ad Abubakar III, The Sultan of Sokoto, who was installed on 17 November, 2015 is the current Chancellor.

THE UNIVERSITY OF IBADAN ACT

THE UNIVERSITY OF IBADAN ACT 1962

AN ACT
TO ESTABLISH THE UNIVERSITY OF IBADAN; TO TRANSFER TO THE UNIVERSITY THE PROPERTY OF THE UNIVERSITY COLLEGE, IBADAN; AND FOR PURPOSES CONNECTED WITH THE MATTERS AFORESAID.

(GOVERNOR-GENERAL'S ASSENT 27TH DECEMBER, 1962)
[See section 16(2)]

BE IT ENACTED by the Legislature of the federation of Nigeria in this present Parliament assembled and by the authority of the same as follows:

Establishment, constitution and functions of the University and its constituent bodies, etc.

1. (1) There shall be established, as the successor of the university College, Ibadan, a university which shall be a body corporate by the name of the University of Ibadan (hereafter in this Act referred to as "the university") and shall be constituted in accordance with the provisions of this Act.

(2) It shall be the general function of the university to encourage the advancement of learning throughout Nigeria and to hold out to all persons, without distinction of race, creed or sex, the opportunity of acquiring a liberal education; and for the purpose of carrying out that function it shall be the duty of the university, so far as its resources permit.

(a) to provide such facilities for the pursuit of learning and the acquisition of a liberal education as are appropriate for a University of the highest standing; and

(b) to make those facilities available on proper terms to such persons as are equipped to benefit from the use of the facilities.

Constitution of the University

2. (1) The University shall consist of -

(a) a chancellor;
(b) a pro-chancellor and a council;
(c) a vice-chancellor and a senate
(d) a body to be called congregation;
(e) a body to be called convocation;
(f) the persons holding offices constituted by the First Schedule to this Act and not mentioned in the foregoing provisions of this section;
(g) all graduates and undergraduates; and
(h) all other persons who are members of the university in accordance with provisions made by statute in that behalf.

(2) The First Schedule to this Act shall have effect with respect to the principal officers of the university there mentioned; and the Second Schedule to this Act shall have effect with respect to the bodies referred to in the foregoing subsection.

Function of the chancellor and Pro-Chancellor

3. (1) The chancellor shall, in relations to the university, take precedence before all other members of the university, and when he is present shall preside at all meetings of congregation held for conferring degrees and at all meetings of the convocation.

(2) The pro-chancellor shall, in relation to the university, take precedence before all other members of the university except the chancellor and except the vice-chancellor when acting as chairman of congregation or convocation and except the deputy vice-chancellor when so acting; and the pro-chancellor shall when he is present be the chairman at all meetings of the council.

Function of the Council

4. (1) Subject to the provisions of this Act relating to the Visitor, the council shall be the governing body of the university and shall have the general management of the affairs of the university and in particular the control of the property and expenditure of the university.

(2) Subject to subsection (6) of this section, the council shall have power to do anything which in its opinion is calculated to facilitate the carrying on of the activities of the university.

(3) The council may make statutes regulating the constitution and conduct of the university and regulating any authority or matter connected with the university; and a statute may alter or repeal any provision of this Act but shall not –

(a) come into the force until it has been confirmed by the Minister; or

(b) have effect in any part of Nigeria in so far as it is inconsistent with the law in force in that part of Nigeria.

(4) The Minister shall, on confirming a statute forthwith lay a copy of it before each House of Parliament; and if either House, on any of the twenty days on which it sits next after the day on which the statute is laid before it, resolves that the statute be annulled it shall cease to have effect on the next day following the date of the resolution and be deemed never to have had effect.

(5) Nothing in subsection (3) or (4) of this section shall be construed as preventing the council from giving instructions, in writing or otherwise, for the purpose of exercising any power conferred on it under subsection (2) of this section.

(6) The council shall not have power to dispose of or charge any lands or an interest in any lands (including any lands transferred to the university by this Act) which are held by or on behalf of the university except with the prior written consent, either general or special, of the Minister.

(7) There shall be a committee of the council, to be known as the Finance and General Purposes Committee, which shall, subject to the directions of the council, exercise control over the property and expenditure of the university, and shall consist of -

a. the pro-chancellor, who shall be the chairman of the committee at any meeting at which he is present.
b. the vice-chancellor; and
c. eight other members of the council appointed by the council, of whom –
   i. not less than two shall be teachers; and

*(d) a number of persons equal to twice the number of the Regions of which Nigeria consists for the time being, of whom two shall be appointed by the Governor of each Region respectively.

(e) four persons appointed by the senate from among the members of that body;

(f) two persons appointed by the congregation from among the members of that body;

(g) one person appointed by the convocation from among the members of that body; and

(f) such persons, not exceeding four in number, as may be appointed by the council to be members of the council.

(2) Any member of the council holding office otherwise than in pursuance of paragraph (a) or (b) above may, by notice to the council, resign his office.

(3) A member of the council holding office otherwise than in pursuance of paragraph (a) or (b) above shall, unless he previously vacates it, vacate that office on the expiration of the period of four years beginning with the first day of August of the year in which he is appointed.

(4) Where a member of the council holding office otherwise than by virtue of paragraph (a) or (b) of (h) above vacates office before the expiration of the period aforesaid, the body or person by whom he was appointed may, and shall if the vacancy occurs more than three months before the expiration of that period, appoint a successor to hold office (unless he previously vacates it) for the residue of the term of his predecessor.

* Amended by University of Ibadan (Amendment) Decree 1972 as follows:
"(d) twelve persons representing a variety of interests and broadly representative of the whole Federation, appointed by the Federal Executive Council."

(5)A person ceasing to hold office as a member of the council otherwise than by removal for misconduct shall be eligible for appointment as such a member.

(6) The quorum of the council shall be six.

(7) If the pro-chancellor is not present at a meeting of the council, such other member of the council present at the meeting as the council may appoint as respects that meeting shall be the chairman of that meeting; and subject to section three of this Act and the foregoing provisions of this subparagraph, the council may regulate its own procedure.

(8) The registrar, or in his absence such member of his department as he may designate, shall act as secretary at any meeting of the council.

2. If it appears to the council that one of its members holding office by virtue of paragraph (c) or (d) above is specially qualified to advise the council in relation to the property and expenditure of the university, the council may confer on him, for the remainder of his period in office, the style of treasurer of the university.

The Senate

3. The Senate shall consist of –

(a) the vice-chancellor;

(b) the deputy vice-chancellor;

(c) the professors, and the director of extramural studies;

(d) the librarian;

(e) the persons for the time being holding such appointments on the staff of the university as may be specified by the vice-chancellor;

(f) such teachers as may be elected to be members of the senate in accordance with paragraph 5 of this Schedule (hereinafter in this Schedule referred to as "elected members").

4. (1) The vice-chancellor shall be the chairman at all meetings of the Senate when he is present; and when he is not present, the deputy vice-chancellor, or in his absence such other member of the Senate present at the meeting as the Senate may appoint for that meeting , shall be the chairman at the meeting.

(2) The quorum of the Senate shall be twenty; and subject to the foregoing sub-paragraph, the Senate may regulate its own procedure.

(3) An elected member may, by notice to the Senate, resign his office.

5. (1) Subject to sub-paragraph (5) of this paragraph, there shall be elections for the selection of elected members which shall be held in the prescribed manner on such day in the month of May or June in each year as the vice-chancellor may from time to time determine, and at which all members of congregation shall be entitled to vote.

(2) Regulations shall secure that voting at election held in pursuance of this paragraph is by secret ballot and that votes are cast either in person or by post.

(3) The number of persons to be elected at any election held in pursuance of this paragraph in any year shall be one half, or the nearest whole number less than half, of the total of non-elected members, so, however, that the said number of persons shall be reduced by the number of elected members whose periods of office do not expire during that year.

(4) An elected member shall hold office for the period of two years beginning with the first day of August in the year of his election, and may be a candidate at any election held in pursuance of this paragraph in the year in which his period of office expires, so however, that no person shall be such a candidate if at the end of his current period of office he will have held office as an elected member for a continuous period of six years or would have so held office if he had not resigned it.

(5) No election shall be held in pursuance of this paragraph in any year if the number specified in the certificate given in pursuance of the next following sub-paragraph does not exceed by more than one of the figure which is twice the number of those elected members holding office on the date of the certificate who do not vacate office during that year in pursuance of the last foregoing sub-paragraph; but for the avoidance of doubt it is hereby declared that no person shall be precluded from continuing in or taking office as an elected member by reason only of a reduction in the total of non-elected members occurring or after the thirtieth day of April in any year in which he is to continue in or take office as an elected member.

(6) In this paragraph, "total of non-elected members" means, as respects any year, such numbers as may be certified by the vice-chancellor on the thirtieth day of April of that year to be the number of persons holding office as members of the senate on that day otherwise than as elected members.

The Convocation

8. Convocation shall consist of –

a. the officers of the university mentioned in the First Schedule to this Act:

b. all teachers within the meaning of this Act; and

c. all other persons whose names are registered in accordance with the next following paragraph.

9. (1) A person shall be entitled to have his name registered as a member of convocation if –

a. he is either a graduate or a person satisfying such requirements as may be prescribed for the purposes of this paragraph; and

b. he applies for the registration of his name in the prescribed manner and pays the prescribed fees;

and regulations shall provide for the establishment and maintenance of a register for the purposes of this paragraph and, subject to the next following sub-paragraph, may provide for the payment from time to time of further fees by persons whose names are on the register and for the removal from the register of the name of any person who fails to pay those fees.

(2) The person responsible for maintaining the register shall, without the payment of any fee, ensure that the names of all persons who are for the time being members of convocation by virtue of paragraph (a) or (b) of paragraph 8 above are entered and retained on the register.

(3) A person who reasonably claims that he is entitled to have his name on the register shall be entitled on demand to inspect the register, or a copy of the register, at the principal offices of the university at all reasonable times.

(4) The register shall be conclusive evidence that any person named therein is and that any person not named therein is not, a member of convocation; but for the purpose of ascertaining whether a particular person was such a member on a particular date, any entries in and deletions from the register made on or after that date shall be disregarded.

10. * (1) The quorum of convocation shall be one-third, or the whole number nearest one-third, of the total number of members of convocation.

(2) Subject to section three of this Act, the vice-chancellor shall be the chairman at all meetings of convocation when he is present and when he is not present the deputy vice-chancellor, or in his absence such other member of convocation present at the meeting as convocation may appoint for that meeting, shall be the chairman at the meeting.

11. Convocation shall have such functions, in addition to the function of appointing a member of the council, as may be provided by statute.

- Amended by Act of Parliament as follows:
- Delete line 2 and 3 of section 10 (1) “one-third of the whole number nearest to one-third, of the total number of members of convocation” and substitute therefore “one hundred”

THIRD SCHEDULE

Organisation of Faculties

Branches of the Faculty

(1) The faculty shall be divided into two or more branches in the prescribed manner.

The Faculty Board

(2) (1) The faculty shall be under the direct control of a body, to be known as the Faculty Board (and hereafter in this Schedule referred to as "the board"), which shall consist of –

a. the vice-chancellor and the deputy vice-chancellor;

b. the persons severally in charge of the branches of the faculty;

c. such of the teachers assigned to the faculty and having the prescribed qualifications as the board may determine; and

d. such persons, whether or not members of the university, as the board may determine with the general or special approval of the senate.

(2) The quorum of the board shall be three or one-third (or the whole number nearest to one-third) of the members for the time being of the board, whichever is the greater; and, subject to paragraph 3 of this Schedule and, to any provision made by regulations in the behalf, that board may regulate its own procedure.

The Dean of the Faculty

3. (1) The board shall, in the prescribed manner, from time to time appoint one of the professors assigned to the faculty to be the dean of the faculty and the person so appointed shall, on his appointment being confirmed by the senate, hold office as dean on such terms (including terms as to the period of tenure of office) as may be prescribed.

(2) The dean shall be the chairman at all meetings of the board when he is present.

(3) It shall be a function of the dean to present to congregation for the conferment of degrees persons who have qualified for degrees of the university at examinations held in the branches of learning for which responsibility is allocated to the faculty.

FOURTH SCHEDULE

Transitional provisions as to property, etc.

Transfer of property

1. (1) Every agreement to which the college was a party immediately before the appointed day, whether in writing or not and whether or not of such a nature that the rights, liabilities and obligations thereunder could be assigned by the college shall, unless its terms or subject matter make it impossible that it should have effect as modified in the manner provided by this sub-paragraph have effect from the appointed day, so far as it relates to property transferred by this Act to the university, as if -

a. the university had been a party to the agreement;
b. for any reference (however worded and whether expressed or implied) to the college there were substituted, as respects anything failing to be done or after the appointed day, a reference to the university; and
c. for any reference (however worded and whether expressed or implied) to an authority or officer of the college there were substituted, as respect anything failing to be done on or after the appointed day, a reference to the authority or officer of the university who corresponds as nearly as may be to the authority or officer in question of the college.

(2) Other documents, including enactments, which refer, whether specially or generally, to the college shall be construed in accordance with sub-paragraph (1) of this paragraph so far as applicable.

(3) Without prejudice to the generality of the foregoing provisions of this Schedule, where, by the operation of any of them or of section seven of this Act, any right, liability or obligation vests in the university, the university and all other persons shall, as from the appointed day, have the same rights, powers and remedies (and, in particular, the same rights as to the taking or resisting of legal proceedings or the making or resisting of applications to any authority) for ascertaining, perfecting or enforcing that right, liability or obligation as they would have had if it had all times been a right, liability or obligation of the university.

(4) Any legal proceedings or application to any authority pending on the appointed day by or against the college and relating property transferred by this Act to the university may be continued on or after that day by or against the University.

(5) If the law in force at the place where any property transferred by this Act is situated provides for the registration of transfers of property of the kind in question (whether by reference to an instrument of transfer or otherwise), the law shall, so far as it provides for alterations of a register (but not for avoidance of transfers, the payment of fees or any other matter) apply with the necessary modifications to the transfer of the property aforesaid; and it shall be the duty of the council to furnish the necessary particulars of the transfer to the proper officer of the registration authority, and of that officer to register the transfer accordingly.

Transfer of functions, etc

2. (1) The first meeting of the council shall be convened by the Minister for such date (not being later than three months after the appointed day and in such manner as he may determine; and the Minister may give directions as to the procedure and agenda for that meeting.

(2) The council of the college shall be deemed to be the council of the university until the date determined in pursuance of the foregoing sub-paragraph, and shall cease to exist on that date.

(3) The foregoing provisions of this paragraph shall apply to the senates of the university and the college as they apply to the councils of the university and the college.

(4) Any person who, immediately before the appointed day, held office as the chairman or a nominated or co-opted member of the council of the college by virtue of any provision repealed by this Act shall on that day become the pro-chancellor or, as the case may be, a member of the council of the university, and shall be deemed –

a. to have been appointed to that office in pursuance of the provision of this Act corresponding to the repealed provision in question; and
b. to have been so appointed on the date on which he took office, or last took office in pursuance of the relevant repealed provision;

and for the purposes of this subparagraph, the provisions of subparagraph (i) and (ii) of paragraph (a) of statute 3 set out in the First Schedule to the University College, Ibadan, Act shall be treated as corresponding to the provisions of paragraph (c) of subparagraph (1) of paragraph 1 of the Second Schedule to this Act.

(5) The faculties, faculty boards and students of the college shall, on the appointed day, become faculties, faculty boards and students of the university; and, without prejudice to the generality of the provisions of this Schedule relating to the transfer of property; and person who, immediately before the appointed day, was a member of the staff of the college within the meaning of the University College, Ibadan Act, shall on that day become the holder of an appointment at the university with the status, designation and functions which correspond as nearly as may be to those which appertained to him in his capacity as a member of that staff.

(6) For the purposes of paragraph 5 of the First Schedule to this Act, a person holding office as deputy vice-chancellor by virtue of this Schedule shall be treated as having held that office during any period when he was vice-principal of the college, and as having been appointed to that office on the first day of August of the year in which his appointment as vice-principal was last renewed.

(7) All regulations, rules and similar instrument made for the purposes of the college and in force immediately before the appointed day shall, except in so far as they are subsequently revoked or amended by any authority having power in that behalf, have effect, with any necessary modifications, as if fully made for the corresponding purposes of the university.

(1962 NO. 37)

College of Medicine of the University of Ibadan Statute

UNIVERSITY OF IBADAN STATUTE NO.2

Commencement: See paragraph 14

In the exercise of the powers conferred by section 4(3) of the University of Ibadan Act 1962, and of all other powers enabling it in that behalf, the Council of the University of Ibadan has made the following statute:

College of Medicine

1. – (1) There is hereby established as an integral part of the University, a college to be known as the College of Medicine of the University of Ibadan (hereinafter in this Statute referred to as "the College") which shall be a body corporate with perpetual succession and a common seal and power to sue and be sued in its corporate name.

(2) Without prejudice to the provisions of subsection (2) of section 1 of the University of Ibadan Act 1962, the College shall-

a. provide courses of instruction leading to the award of degrees, diplomas, certificates and other university distinctions in the medical and such allied professions as the Council may prescribe;

b. provide special training courses, whether leading to university distinctions or not, for such persons as the Council may prescribe taking into account at all times the requirements of the Federal Ministry of Health;

c. conduct research, with particular reference to research in the field of medical science and

d. arrange conferences, seminars, study groups and other similar activities in the field of medical science.

(3) subject to the provisions of the University of Ibadan Act 1962, as amended by the University of Ibadan (Amendment) Act 1972 and the University of Ibadan (Amendment) Act 1976, (relating to the functions of the Visitor, the Council, the Senate and the Vice-Chancellor), the College shall –

a. as respects academic matters, be responsible to the Senate;

b. as respects non-academic matters, be subject to the overall control of the Council; and

c. as respects its financial affairs, be self-accounting but responsible through the Vice-Chancellor to the Council.

Provost

2.– (1) There shall be a Provost of the College who shall be the chief executive officer of the College and shall be responsible to the Vice-Chancellor for the day-to-day running of the College.

(2) The Provost shall be appointed by the Council from amongst the Professors in the College, after due consideration of any recommendations made in that regard by the Academic Staff Assembly of the College, after election by the Assembly at a duly constituted Meeting of the Assembly at which the election of the Provost is on the agenda.

(3) The Provost shall in relation to the University, take precedence before all Deans of Faculties in the University.

(4) The Provost shall hold office for one single term of four years beginning form the 1st day of August of the year in which he is appointed and shall thereafter not be eligible for reappointment until not less than four years have elapsed since he last held such office.

(5) No person shall while holding the post of Provost also be the Dean of a Faculty or Head of any Department of the College.

(6) A meeting of the Academic Staff Assembly for the election of a Provost shall be held in the month of May or June immediately preceding the expiration of the term of office of an incumbent and the Vice-Chancellor or his nominee shall preside over such meeting.

(7) Without prejudice to the foregoing provisions of this paragraph, Ebenezer Oluwole Akande shall be the first provost of the College and shall be deemed to have been appointed in accordance with the provisions of sub-paragraph (2) of this paragraph with effect from 1st August, 1980 and shall vacate office in accordance with the provisions of sub-paragraph (4) of this paragraph.

Deputy Provost

3.– (1) There shall be a Deputy Provost of the College who shall assist the Provost and act in his place when the office of the Provost is vacant or the Provost is for any reason (including absence form the premises of the College) unable to perform his function as Provost.

(2) The Deputy Provost shall be appointed by the Council from amongst the Professors in the College after consideration of any recommendation in that regard made by the Academic Staff Assembly after election by the Assembly at a duly constituted meeting of the Assembly at which the election of the Deputy Provost is on the agenda.

(3) The Deputy Provost shall hold office for two years beginning with the 1st August of the year in which he is appointed and shall be eligible for re-appointment for a second term of two years.

(4) A person who has held office as Deputy Provost for a continuous period of four years shall not be eligible for appointment as Deputy Provost until four years have elapsed since he last held such office.

(5) No person shall, while holding office as Deputy Provost of the College also be the holder of the office of the Dean of a Faculty or Head of Department in the College.

(6) A meeting of the Academic Staff Assembly for the election of a Deputy Provost shall be held in the month of May or June immediately preceding the expiration of the term of office of the current Deputy Provost; and the Vice-Chancellor or his nominee shall preside over such meeting.

(7) Without prejudice to the foregoing provisions of this paragraph, Julius Babasola Familusi shall be the first Deputy Provost of the College and shall be deemed to have been appointed in accordance with the provisions of sub-paragraph (2) of this paragraph with effect from 1st August 1980 and shall vacate office in accordance with the provisions of sub-paragraph (4) of this paragraph

Faculties

4.– (1) Without prejudice to the generality of the provisions of subsection (5) of section 5 of the University of Ibadan Act 1962, the College shall consist of faculties and institutes which shall be made up of departments and other academic units established in accordance with the procedure prescribed by the Senate for the creation of new faculties and other academic units of the University.

PART VII-SPECIAL AND RESTRICTED METHODS OF PROCUREMENT

Two stage tendering

39.-(I) Notwithstanding the provisions of this Act, the Bureau may issue 'Certificate of No Objection' uponconditions hereinafter prescribed.

(2) A procuring entity shall engage in procurement by two-stage tendering:

(a) where it is not feasible for the procuring entity to formulate detailed specifications for the goods or works or, in the case of services, to identify their characteristics and where it seeks tenders, proposals or offers on various means of meeting its needs in order to obtain the most satisfactory solution to its procurement needs;

(b) where the character of the goods works are subject to rapid technological advances; where the procuring entity seeks to enter into a contract for research, experiment, study or development, except where the contract includes the production of goods in sufficient quantities to establish their commercial viability or to recover research and development costs, where the procuring entity applies this Act to procurement concerned with national security and determines that the selected method is the most appropriate method of procurement; or

(c) where the tender proceedings have been utilized but were not successful or the tenders were rejected by the procuring entity under an open competitive bid procedure and the procuring entity considers that engaging in new tendering proceedings will not result in a procurement contract.

(3) The provisions of this Act as regards the process for open competitive bidding shall apply to two-stage tendering proceedings except to the extent that those provisions vary this Section.

(4) The invitation documents:

(a) shall call upon suppliers or contractors to submit, in the first stage of two stage tendering proceedings, initial tenders which contain their proposals without a tender price; and

(b) may solicit proposals that relate to technical, quality or other characteristics of the goods, works or services as well as contractual terms and conditions of supply and may stipulate the professional competence and technical qualifications of the suppliers or contractors.

(5) The procuring entity may, in the first stage, engage in negotiations with any supplier or contractor whose tender has not been rejected under an open competitive bidding procedure with respect to any aspect of its tender.

(6) In the second stage of the two tender proceedings the procuring entity;

(a) shall invite suppliers or contractors whose tenders have not been rejected to submit final tenders with prices on a single set of specifications;

(b) may, in formulating the specifications, delete or modify any aspect of the technical or quality characteristics of the goods, works or services to be procedure together with any criterion originally set out in these documents, evaluate and compare tenders and ascertain the successful tender;

(d) shall communicate to suppliers or contractors in the invitation to submit firm tenders, any deletion, modification or addition; and
(e) may permit a supplier or contractor who does not wish to submit a final tender to withdraw from the tendering proceedings.
(7) The final tenders shall be evaluated and compared in order to ascertain the successful tender as defined in an open competitive bid.

40. (I) Subject to the approval by the Bureau, a procuring entity may for reasons of economy and efficiency engage in procurement by means of restricted tendering if:
(a) the goods, works or services are available only from a limited number of suppliers or contractors;
(b) the time and cost required to examine and evaluate a large number of tenders is disproportionate to the value of the goods, works or services to be procured; or
(c) the procedure is used as an exception rather than norm.
(2) where a procuring entity engages in restricted tendering on the basis that:
(a) the good works and services are available only from a limited number of suppliers or contractors, it shall invite tenders from all the suppliers and contractors who can provide the goods, works or services; and
(b) the time and cost required to examine and evaluate a large number of tenders is disproportionate to the value of the goods, works or services, it shall select in a non-discriminatory manner of the number of suppliers or contractors to ensure effective competition;
(3) For the purpose of subsection (2) of this Section, the procuring entity shall cause a notice of the selected tendering proceedings to be published in the procurement journal.
(4) The provisions of this Act regarding the open competitive bidding procedure shall apply to the selective tendering proceedings, except to the extent that those provisions are varied by this Section.

Request for quotations

41.-(1) A procuring entity may carry out procurements by requesting for quotations from suppliers or contractors where the value of the goods or works to be procured does not exceed a sum that shall be set in the procurement regulation.
(2) Generally quotations shall be obtained from at least 3 unrelated contractors or suppliers.
(3) Each contractor or supplier from whom a quotation is requested shall
(a) be informed whether any factors other than the charges for the goods, works or services themselves, such as any applicable transportation and insurance charges, customs duties and taxes are to be included in the price; and
(b) give only one quotation and shall not be allowed to change or vary the quotation.
(4) No negotiation shall take place between a procuring entity and a contractor or supplier with respect to a quotation.

(5) The procurement shall be awarded to the qualified contractor or supplier that gives the lowest priced responsive quotation.

(6) Where the total value of the procurement is not more than a sum that shall be set in the regulation, the procurement entity may not obtain the Bureau's approval.

Direct procurement

42.-(I) A procuring entity may carry out any emergency procurement where:

(a) goods, works or services are only available from a particular supplier or contractor, or if a particular supplier or contractor has exclusive rights in respect of the goods, works or services, and no reasonable alternative or substitute exists; or

(b) there is an urgent need for the goods, works or services and engaging in tender proceedings or any other method of procurement is impractical due to unforeseeable circumstances giving rise to the urgency which is not the result of dilatory conduct on the part of the procuring entity;

(c) owing to a catastrophic event, there is an urgent need for the goods, works or services, making it impractical to use other methods of procurement because of the time involved in using those methods;

(d) a procuring entity which has procured goods, equipment, technology or services from a supplier or contractor, determines that:

(i) additional supplies need to be procured from that supplier or contractor because of standardization,

(ii) there is a need for compatibility with existing goods, equipment, technology or services, taking into account the effectiveness of the original procurement in meeting the needs of the procurement entity,

(iii) the limited size of the proposed procurement in relation to the original procurement provides justification,

(iv) the reasonableness of the price and the unsuitability of alternatives to the goods or services in question merits the decision.

(e) the procuring entity seeks to enter into a contract with the supplier or contractor for research, experiment, study or development, except where the contract includes the production of goods in quantities to establish commercial viability or recover research and development costs; or

(f) the procuring entity applies this Act for procurement that concerns national security, and determines that single-source procurement is the most appropriate method of procurement.

(2) The procuring entity:

(a) may procure the goods, works or services by inviting a proposal or price quotation form a single supplier or contractor.

Emergency Procurement

(b) shall include in the record of procurement proceedings a statement of the grounds for its decision and the circumstances in justification of single source procurement.

PART XI-CODE OF CONDUCT

Code of conduct for public procurement

57. (1)The Bureau shall, with the approval of the Council, stipulate a Code of Conduct for all public officers, suppliers, contractors and service providers with regards to their standards of conduct acceptable in matters involving the procurement and disposal of public assets.

(2) The conduct of all persons involved with public procurement, whether as official of the Bureau, a procuring entity, supplier, contractor or service provider shall at all times be governed by principles of honesty, accountability, transparency, fairness and equity

(3)All officers of the Bureau, members of Tenders Boards and other persons that may come to act regarding the conduct of public procurements shall subscribe to an oath as approved by Council.

(4) All persons in whose hands public funds may be entrusted for whatever purpose should bear in mind that its utilization should be judicious.

(5) Where a transaction involves the disposal of assets, principles of honesty, accountability, transparency, fairness, and equity shall continue to apply to the same extent as where it involves procurement.

(6) These principles shall apply at all times, particularly when:

(a) making requisition for or planning of procurements;

(b) preparing solicitation documents;

(c) receiving offers in response to any form of solicitation towards procurement or disposal;

(d) evaluating and comparing offers confidentially and in complete neutrality;

(e) protecting the interest of all parties without fear or favour; and

(f) obviating all situations likely to render an officer vulnerable to embarrassment or undue influence

(7) All public officers shall handle public procurement and disposal of assets by

(a) Ensuring adequate time for preparing offers;

(b) Complying with this Act and all derivative regulations; and

(c) Receiving strict confidentiality until completion of a contract

(8) All public officers involved in public procurement and disposal of assets shall maintain the highest standards of ethics in their relationships with persons real or corporate who seek government commerce whether as a bidder, supplier, contractor or service provider by developing transparent, honest and professional relationships with such persons.

(9) Every public officer involved directly or indirectly in matters of public procurement and disposal of assets shall;

(a) divest himself of any interest or relationships which are actually or potentially, inimical or detrimental to the best interest of government and the underlining principles of this Act; and

(b) not engage or participate in any commercial transaction involving the Federal Government, its ministries, extra-ministerial departments, Corporations where his capacity as public officer is likely to confer any unfair advantage-pecuniary or otherwise on him or any person directly related to him.

(10)Any person engaged in the public procurement and disposal of assets who has assumed, or is about to assume, a financial or other business outside business relationship that might involve a conflict of interest, must immediately declare to the authorities any actual or potential interest.

(11)Such a declaration shall be given such consideration at the relevant level as is necessary so that, where it is seen that remedial action is taken, a conflict of interest is present.

(12)A conflict of interest exists where a person

(a) Possesses an interest outside his official duties that materially encroaches on the time or attention which should otherwise be devoted to affairs of government;

(b) Possesses a direct or indirect interest in or relationship with a bidder, supplier, contractor or service provider that is inherently unethical or that may be implied or constructed to be, or make possible personal gain due to the person's ability to influence dealings;

(c) Entertains relationships which are unethical, rendering his attitude partial toward the outsider for personal reasons or otherwise inhibit the impartiality of the person's business judgments;

(d) Places by acts or omissions the procuring entity he represents or the government in an equivocal, embarrassing or ethically questionable position;

(e) Entertains relationships compromising the reputation or integrity of the procuring entity he represents or the Government;

(f) Receives benefits by taking personal advantage of an opportunity that properly belongs to the procuring entity he represents or the Government;

(g) Creates a source of personal revenue or advantage by using public property which comes into his hands either in course of his work or otherwise; and

(h) Discloses confidential information being either the property of his procuring entity, the Government or to a supplier, contractor or service provider to unauthorized persons

(13)A person involved in the disposal of assets, shall not either by a third party or by himself be interested in any manner in buying directly or indirectly these assets and shall not have or obtain any type of advantage or revenue from the disposal for a period of three years after the disposal.

PART XII-OFFENCES

Offence relating to public procurement

58.-(1)Any natural person not being a public officer who contravenes any provision of this Act commits an offence and is liable on conviction to a term of imprisonment not less than 5 calendar years but not exceeding 10 calendar years without an optio

(2)Any offence in contravention of this Act shall be tried by the Federal High Court.

(3)Prosecution of offences under this Act shall be instituted in the name of the Federal Republic of Nigeria by the Attorney-General of the Federation or such other officer of the Federal Ministry of Justice as he may authorize so to do, and in addition, without prejudice to the Constitution of the Federal Republic of Nigeria 1999, he may;

(a) After consultation with the Attorney-General of any state of the federation, authorize the Attorney-General or any other officer of the Ministry of Justice of that state; or

(b) If the relevant authority so requests, authorize any legal practitioner in Nigeria to undertake such prosecution directly or assist therein.

(4)The following shall also constitute offences under this Act;

(a) entering or attempting to enter into a collusive agreement, whether enforceable or not, with a supplier, contractor or consultant where the prices quoted in their respective tenders, proposals or quotations are or would be higher than would have been the case has there not been collusion between the persons concerned;

(b) conducting or attempting to conduct procurement fraud by means of fraudulent and corrupt acts, unlawful influence, undue interest, favor, agreement, bribery or corruption;

(c) directly, indirectly or attempting to influence in any manner the procurement process to obtain an unfair advantage in the award of a procurement contract;

The Postgraduate School: Mode of operation

The Postgraduate School, as it is presently structured, was approved by Senate on 29 May, 1978, as the successor of the former Board of Postgraduate Studies. The School was set up to cope with the expansion of Postgraduate programmes in the University which is aimed at meeting the manpower development of the country. By virtue of its central position, the School is better placed to co-ordinate, harmonize and streamline all postgraduate regulations among the various Faculties.
The School has a Board composed of:

The Vice-Chancellor (Chairman)
The Deputy Vice-Chancellor (Academic)
The Dean of the Postgraduate School
The Deans of Faculties

Heads of Departments and Directors of Institutes with Postgraduate Programmes
The Sub-Deans (Postgraduate) of Faculties
Faculty Representatives (one each)
The Librarian

The School is administered by an executive body of the Board of the School known as the Executive Committee of the Postgraduate School comprising:
The Dean of the Postgraduate School (Chairman)
The Deans of Faculties
The Sub-Deans (Postgraduate) of Faculties
Faculty Representatives (one each)
The University Librarian

Functions of the Board

A. To consider and decide on recommendations from Deans of Faculties relating to:
   1. Admission and registration of students for higher degrees/postgraduate diploma courses;
   2. Approval of titles of theses and dissertations;
   3. Approval of the appointment of internal examiners: provided that the decisions of the Board shall, from time to time, be reported to the Senate for ratification.

B. To recommend to the Senate, on the advice of Deans, candidates for the award of higher degrees and postgraduate diplomas.

C. To advise on the interpretation of the regulations governing higher degrees and postgraduate diploma courses in the University.

D. To collate the teaching programmes, available courses and examinations for postgraduate students, including the publication of time tables

E. To undertake the publication of:
   i. Prospectus of Postgraduate Studies;
   ii. Annual Reports of postgraduate work, including titles and abstracts of theses/dissertations accepted for higher degrees.

F. To recommend to the Senate on the academic suitability of students for the extension of Postgraduate scholarships and for permission to undertake part of postgraduate courses abroad.

G. To survey from time to time the wider objectives of postgraduate studies in the University and to make recommendations to the Senate on how these may be achieved.

H. To review annually and report to the Senate on the development of Postgraduate Studies in the University.

I. To operate the budget for postgraduate Studies at the University. This will involve:
   i. Administration of Postgraduate Scholarships.

ii. Allocation of Scholarships to Departments before the beginning of each academic year based on yearly reviews and projected needs in the various fields.
iii. Research and Teaching support to Departments in respect of Postgraduate development.
iv. Visiting Professorships and postdoctoral fellowships for existing staff.

J. To consider and report on any other matters referred to it.

In terms of status, the Board of the Postgraduate School and its Executive Committee are vested with powers delegated by the Senate to deliberate and take final decisions on all postgraduate affairs except new regulations and results of higher degree and postgraduate certificate and diploma examionations, and report such action to Senate for ratification only.

The School also has a Curriculum Committee, which looks into development and review of curricula. It reports to the Board through the Executive Committee and comprises:
Sub-Dean (Arts and Humanities), Postgraduate School – Chairman
Sub-Dean (Sciences), Postgraduate School, and Sub-Deans (Postgraduate) of the Faculties, Institutes and Centres.

In addition, there is a Finance Committee, which considers and approves the budget and other financial affairs of the School. It comprises of:
Deputy Vice-Chancellor (Academic) - Chairman
Dean, The Postgraduate School
Dean of 6 (six) Faculties whose memberships are chosen in rotation
Director, Institute of Education
Director, Africa Regional Centre for Information Science

A set of regulations for all higher programmes in all Faculties has been produced. There are now three higher degree structures in the University, namely: the three-semester degree of M.A. M.Sc., M.Ed., M.L.S. which is compulsory for all first degree holders; the M.Phil, and the Ph.D; in addition to the professional degrees such as the: M.Sc. (Analytical Chemistry), M.P.H.Ed., M.B.A., M.Vet.Sc., and M.V.P.H.

The most important implications of this set of regulations are that course work shall be an integral part of all higher degree programmes in the University, and the admission requirements have been relaxed to enable those who obtain lower than Upper Second Class Division in their first degrees to be eligible for admission.,

THE REGISTRY

The Registry of the University is made up of Divisions charged with providing service towards the day-to-day administration of the institution. This comprises the Administration, Academic, Establishments, Council, Legal and Student Affairs Divisions. Others are: the Secretariats of the Postgraduate School, the Distance Learning Centre, the Vice-Chancellor's Office, and the College of Medicine. A Deputy Registrar who oversees the various units making up the Division or Secretariat is responsible to the Registrar.

The Registrar is the head of the Registry and, under the Act setting up the University, is responsible for the day to day administration of the University (other than financial matters). In addition, he/she is the Secretary to the Council, the Senate, the Congregation and the Convocation.

All non-teaching and non-technical staff of the University are regarded as centrally deployed staff of the Registry.

A lot of emphasis is currently being placed on the training and development of Registry staff through in service programmes designed to enhance their knowledge of best practices in higher education administration as well as upgrade their communication and technical skills. Regular interactive sessions are held through the Registry Seminar series, the Faculty Officers' Forum, Orientation and Induction programmes for new entrants and attendance at conferences and workshops organized by the Association of Nigerian University Professional Administrators (ANUPA) and other bodies.

The Registry is adequately positioned to respond to the University's changing needs and challenges in the coming years.

THE STUDENTS' UNION AND ACCOMMODATION

THE STUDENT AFFAIRS DIVISION

The Student Affairs Division is located in a building, situated between the old NISER and the Establishments Division. The Division is concerned with student welfare generally. Its functions are to provide, direct, guide and encourage a number of extra-curricula activities and services, including all aspects of life in the Halls of Residence.

The Division consists of General Administration, Lodgings, Welfare, Careers, Placement and Counseling, Financial Aids and Foreign Students Units.

Students are able to receive assistance and advice from the Student Affairs Division on different kinds of individual matters including: counseling and personal problems, housing, orientation, financial aids, scholarships and prizes, careers, sports, National Youth Service Corps, etc.

The activities of the Students Union and all other Students' Clubs and Societies are coordinated through the Division. The objective is to provide an enriching cultural, physical, social and morally-uplifting environment for the student as a rewarding complement to academic pursuits.

The Dean of Students, who is appointed by the Vice-Chancellor, is the Executive Head of the Division, and assisted by the Deputy Registrar (Students).

HALLS OF RESIDENCE

There are ten undergraduate Halls of Residence: Mellanby, Tedder, Kuti, Sultan Bello, Queen Elizabeth II, Alexander Brown, Nnamdi Azikwe, Queen Idia, Independence, Obafemi Awolowo and two Postgraduate Halls of Residence. These are the Tafawa Balewa Hall and the Abdul-Salami Abubakar Hall. It should be noted that Obafemi Awolowo Hall that hitherto provided accommodation for both undergraduate and postgraduates of both sexes is now an undergraduate Hall of Residence (for ladies) with effect from the 2012/2013 session.

CATERING SERVICES

Until 1972, each Hall of Residence had its own catering facilities, but steps were taken during that year towards providing more centralized catering services. The Central Cafeteria, with a capacity for 1,600 students, was completed on 04 January 1976, and catered for the majority of students. As a result of the large number of students, however, catering services continued to be provided in Independence, Nnamdi Azikwe, Queen Elizabeth II, Tafawa Balewa and Alexander Brown Halls, by selected caterers. In 1984, the University in consonance with Federal Government directives to Federal Universities disengaged from providing Hall catering services to students.

ACCOMMODATION

It is the policy of the University to provide an environment that will assist each student in developing his or her academic and social potentials to the fullest. For this reason, the Halls of Residence are considered to be an integral part of the total educational enterprise at the University of Ibadan. The Halls are not merely places to sleep in. For many months of the year, they are homes for the students. That is how it should be.

Only registered students of the University, except sub-degree students, with effect from the 2001/2002 session, are allowed to live in the Halls of Residence. Accommodation in the Halls of Residence is a privilege and not a right. Students who opt to live in University Halls of Residence must, therefore, abide by the rules of and regulations appertaining thereto.

Students who reside in the University Halls of Residence have been made to sign a Tenancy Agreement from the 2001/2002 session in order to maintain high-level of discipline and decent environment. The demand for Hall accommodation far exceeds the number of available bed spaces. All rooms are, therefore, allocated to qualified students on the basis of first-come-first-served. The system of accommodation is that of two or three sharing a room in accordance with the architectural design.

The Lodgings Office, however, assists in securing off-campus accommodation around the University campus for those who cannot secure accommodation in the Halls of Residence.

In the past, requests for accommodation in the Halls of Residence by new students used to be forwarded to the Lodgings Officer as soon as they received the letters of admission. However, with the establishments of the Management Information System Unit, the Unit now allocates fresh students to Halls of Residence. Since the 2001/2002 session, the University Administration decided to provide accommodation for all fresh undergraduates in order to protect them from the menace of unscrupulous individuals. Each Hall has modest conveniences such as toilets, showers and beds. There is, however, no hot water facility.

Students are responsible for the cleaning of their rooms and their immediate surroundings. Professional cleaning contractors are engaged to clean the Halls of Residence.

DISCIPLINE

The Welfare Unit handles disciplinary matters. These are processed for the consideration of the Student Disciplinary Committee (SDC) and the Faculty Student Disciplinary Committee. Sanctions, including warning, reprimand, rustication or expulsion are imposed on students that are found guilty by the Committee, depending on the nature and gravity of the offence committed.

The aim of the committee is to ensure that a student who is awarded the certificate of the University is worthy in character.

CAREERS, PLACEMENT AND COUNSELLING UNIT

The University of Ibadan Careers, Placement & Counselling Service is the oldest of such services in the country. Until when it became part of the Student Affairs Division, it was an autonomous unit. The head of the unit is responsible to the Dean of Student through the Deputy Registrar (Students).

The unit provides a variety of services to students, University departments and administration which typically, are related to problems of student development, adjustment and evaluation. Members of staff and their dependants also benefit from the services of the unit.

Such services include the following:

A. COUNSELLING SERVICES

The philosophy which guides the Careers, Placement, Guidance and Counseling Unit in discharging its primary function is to view the undergraduate years as one of the most crucial development periods in the lives of our students.

During these years, the average student faces the task of taking some major steps towards maturity and adulthood. Generally, this involves establishing a clearer identity of himself and his relationship to the world around him.

The objectives of the Guidance and Counselling Unit are to facilitate the development of students and to help them make the most of their University experience. Specifically, this may include counseling towards enhancing self-understanding, selecting appropriate educational and vocational goals, improving effectiveness in working towards these goals, increasing social competence, and resolving personal difficulties, which interfere with general functioning and development.

Students:

The unit provides counselling services to assist students overcome personal or educational problems. Services are also provided to clients to solve vocational, social and psychological problems through:

- Individual Counselling: this helps to meet specific needs and on-going problems.
- Group Counselling: to meet needs of a group of students with focus on some specific issues of concern or varieties of concern to the group.
- Crisis Intervention: for individuals with severe psychological or behavioural problems.

Staff:

- Individual counselling is also given to members of staff on request.

Staff Dependants:

Services are provided to dependants on issues such as:

1. Schooling
2. Career Guidance and Counselling
3. Behavioural problems

B. CAREER DEVELOPMENT

Most students entering the University are undecided about their career plans. This is not surprising because the range of opportunities open to graduates is very wide.

Most of the work on Career Development is accomplished through individual and group counseling. For students who are just beginning to consider their career options, individual and group counseling sessions are available to help them. This would help them to identify strengths and skills, communicate interest, and improve their ability to make use of career-related information sources.

For students who have a clear career goal in mind, the unit also organizes individual and group counseling sessions which assist the students in acquiring the skills necessary for effectively seeking permanent employment. There are also specialized programmes available for students who, feel they need assistance with particular aspects of job-search skills, such as resume preparation or employment interviews.

The Centre is an important link between students and employers. Specific services available include:

Organized workshops, seminars and career talks from various professionals and employers of labour.

- Career decision-making tasks.
- Writing of curriculum vitae.
- Job interviewing techniques.
- Coping with transition from school to employment.
- How to secure and maintain good jobs.

C. CAREER INFORMATION SERVICES

There is a Careers Information Library, which houses a wide range of occupational information, career literature and reference books. Employers' brochures from individual firms and organisations, regular vacancy bulletins, and details of post-graduate courses and prospectuses are also available for students.

D. GRADUATE RECRUITMENT SERVICE

This is a programme under which representatives from every major field of employment are invited to visit the University to interview final year students who consider careers with the organisations. This is in addition to our round the year contacts with these employers of graduates. However, during this recruitment exercise, on-campus interviews are arranged between the invited employers and the students who have applied to them for employment. The exercise is usually held during the session to enable a second-tier interview, and final selection, (usually held at the companies' headquarters with the pre-selected candidates) to take place during the academic session.

E. ACADEMIC SUPPORT SERVICES

A number of services are available to help students overcome learning problems and improve their academic capabilities. These include:

- Academic Study Skills
- Writing and Reading Skills
- Communication Skills
- Test-Anxiety Management
- Time Management
- Study-Habit Improvement Skills
- Overcoming Procrastination etc

F. APPRAISAL SERVICES

Various types of tests are administered as occasion demands during counselling or on request. These help clients to understand themselves and make meaningful decisions in different situations which include:

- Changing from one University programme to another in the same University.
- Changing from one University to another.
- Making social and psychological decisions.
- Identifying defective or poor study habits.
- Awareness of career interest or motivation for career preference.

G. ORIENTATION AWARENESS

Orientation programmes are usually arranged for fresh students during the first few weeks of resumption.

Talks and lectures are given to introduce students to life on the campus and warn them about some dangerous steps which are inimical to their success as students.

The unit also organizes orientation progammes for members of the Executive Council of the Students Union and Student Representative Council.

FINANCIAL AIDS UNIT

The University of Ibadan operates a Financial Aids Office as a Unit of the Student Affairs Division where students may receive advice and assistance about Scholarships, Bursary, Loans and other financial matters. The office is located in the Student Affairs Division. Registered students of the University may apply for any of the aids as listed below:

a. Federal Government Awards
b. State Government Awards
c. Corporate Bodies
d. Foreign Government Awards
e. Private Individual Awards

FOREIGN STUDENTS UNIT

The University of Ibadan is an international community, in every sense of the word. The number of foreign students registered in the University has been increasing steadily over the years. The majority of them are enrolled in the various Faculties in the University - Faculties of Arts, Science, Medicine, Agriculture and Forestry, The Social Sciences, Education, Veterinary Medicine, Technology, Pharmacy and Law and they come from all parts of the world. Many British and American Universities have close links and exchange programmes with the University of Ibadan.

The University is one of the oldest in Africa, and therefore occupies a unique position in its educational and development processes. It has a virile faculty and highly developed curricula in the Humanities, Sciences, Medicine, Agriculture, the Social Sciences, Education, Veterinary Medicine, Technology, Law and African Studies. Consequently, it is expected that the number of foreign students will continue to increase in the future.

To this end, the Office of International Programmes caters exclusively for the needs and general welfare of foreign students in the University.

Entry Permit/Visa

Foreign students are required to comply with certain Nigerian Immigration regulations. It is the responsibility of each foreign student to ensure that he/she complies with all such regulations and that his/her passport with the STR (Subject to Regularisation) and other papers are in order at all times. Experience has shown that foreign students often encounter considerable difficulties in obtaining entry visas for Nigeria. It is, therefore, strongly advised that applications for entry permit/visas should be made very early to the nearest Nigerian Embassy or High Commission, at least three months before the date of entry.

There are three categories of immigrants entering Nigeria. These are:

i. ECOWAS Nationals
ii. COMMONWEALTH Citizens, and

iii. Aliens from other countries

On entering Nigeria, such an immigrant has to fulfill certain requirements before his/her stay is regularized. In other words, before he/she is issued with a Residence Permit or a Residence Card, he/she has to satisfy certain conditions. Full details are obtainable from the Student Information Handbook.

Arrival in Nigeria

Foreign Students are advised to inform the Foreign Students Officer three weeks before the arrival date. Arrivals should be planned for between Mondays and Fridays. Flights arriving Nigeria at night should be avoided because of high cost of hotel accommodation in Lagos, and non-availability of suitable transport by night to Ibadan, a distance of 142km.

There are taxi cabs for hire which operate from the Airport to Ojota Motor Park in Lagos. At the park, organized public transport is available to Ibadan on request. Students are advised to board Iwo road bound cabs from where taxi cabs are available to the University. In the alternative it might be possible to hire taxi directly from the airport to the University of Ibadan campus situated along Oyo road.

THE STUDENTS' UNION

The Students' Union is the representative student government of the University. All registered students are members of the Union by payment of an annual subscription which is to be paid directly to the Union. Following a recent government policy, student unionism is voluntary, in effect; students may opt out of the Union.

The Union serves as a veritable ground for the grooming of students for leadership and as a channel of coordinating student involvement in the management of the University. The general function of the Union is to foster and manage the athletic, social and cultural interests of students, and provide a forum for other activities of the Union.

THE EXECUTIVECOUNCIL

The governing body of the Union is the Student Representative Council (SRC). Each Hall of Residence is represented on the Student Representative Council.

In accordance with the existing Students' Union constitution, the Union elects the following officers every session:

i. President,
ii. Vice-President,
iii. Secretary,
iv. Assistant Secretary,
v. Treasurer,
vi. House Secretary,
vii. Public Relations Officer,
viii. Sports Secretary.

The Union Constitution also provides for the office of a Senior Treasurer, who is normally the Deputy Registrar (Students), with supervisory powers over management of the Union finances. Consideration of proposals for a review of the Constitution is a legislative responsibility of the Students Representative Council (SRC)

The offices of the Union are housed in the Students' Union Building with full facilities for a library, a Billiard Room, a Bar and Buttery, Conference Rooms and Student Representative Council Chamber. The Sports Council Swimming Pool is adjacent to the Central Cafeteria and close to the Students' Union Building.

POLICIES AND REGULATIONS GOVERNING THE MANAGEMENT OF STUDENTS' UNION FINANCES

The Student Welfare Board has laid down the following policies and regulations for the management of Students' Union Finances:

1. The Students' Union shall continue to have powers to determine its budget and the allocation of funds within its income. The financial procedures for the disbursement of funds in the Departments of the University shall be introduced. The Union should keep proper accounting records.

2. Surpluses for the Students' Union account shall be put in a sinking fund, i.e., a savings account. The Students' Union shall have the right to determine what to do with such savings.

3. The expenditure headings and the budget for each shall be submitted to the Bursary after approval by the Students' Representative Council. The Senior Treasurer shall have powers to restrict expenditure to the amount agreed to under each heading. Professional advice shall be made available by the Bursary to the Students' Union when drawing up their budgets.

4. All purchases and payments shall be made through the system currently used by the Bursary for the regulation of University Expenditure. Any imprest account kept by the Union Treasurer shall be subject to a system of rigid continuous audit. Before a new imprest is granted, the old account shall have been audited.

5. All purchases shall be made by Internal Orders and/or Local Purchase Orders. The Senior Treasurer shall countersign all such Internal Orders and/or Local Purchase Orders.

6. It shall be made mandatory for all student publications to be printed by the University Press. Where, for any reason, the Students' Union has to use the services of outside printers, the Senior Treasurer shall satisfy himself that there is good cause for this, and shall ensure that prices are reasonable.

7. The Students; Union Bar and Buttery shall be given out on contract, in order that it may be profitably run as a major source of Students' Union revenue.

8. The provision of the Students' Union constitution especially as regards finance shall be strictly enforced.

STAFF/STUDENT RELATIONSHIP

Staff-Student co-operation with regard to campus affairs is secured through the representation and appointments of students on various standing Boards and Committees of Council and Senate, and by means of other mechanisms.

The following are some of the Boards and Committees on which students are directly represented.

1. Students Welfare Board
2. Careers Board
3. University Student Lodgings Bureau

4. Sports Council
5. Joint Council/Senate Committee on Naming of Buildings and Streets
6. Building, Works and Sites Committee
7. University Bookshop (Nigeria) Limited Board of Directors
8. Consultative Committee on Community Development
9. Committee on Campus Security
10. Library Committee
11. Student Disciplinary Committee
12. Ceremonials Committee
13. Press Council
14. Staff/Student Liaison Committees in Faculties and Departments

HALLS OF RESIDENCE

The University of Ibadan has ten undergraduate and two postgraduate halls of residence with a total optimum capacity of nearly 9000.

HALL ADMINISTRATION

The Hall Master

The immediate supervision and administration of the life and activities of each Hall is the responsibility of the Hall Master /Warden. The Hall Master is appointed by the Vice-Chancellor normally from among the professors, usually for a three-year period renewable once for only two years immediately thereafter. The Master is the executive head of the Hall, responsible for the direction of the affairs of the Hall and for all matters of discipline therein. The Hall Master is the Chairman of the Hall Management Committee.

The Hall Warden

The Hall Warden is a appointed by the Vice-Chancellor, on the advice of the Hall Master, from among the senior academic and administrative ranks, usually for a period of three years, renewable for another three years after. The Warden, with usually two or three Assistant Wardens, is responsible for the general administration of the Hall, including general students' welfare, staff matters, finance, allocation of rooms, etc. In the absence of the Hall Master, the Hall Warden presides at the meetings of the Hall Management Committee.

The Student Welfare Board

The Student Welfare Board, a staff/student Board of Senate, is responsible for the organization, supervision and control of life in halls of residence and the general welfare of students.

Hall Management Committees

Each Hall of Residence has a Management Committee which is responsible for matters of general policy for the social, athletic and intellectual activities of the Hall. The Management Committee is given powers to arrange its own social, cultural, or intellectual activities designed to prese, develop and enrich the traditions of the Hall and to make life in the Hall generally interesting and worth-while.

The Management Committee consists of the Hall Master (as Chairman), the Wardens and Assistant Wardens, the Domestic Wardens and elected student members of the Hall. The Management Committee is required to meet once a month, to keep proper records of its business, and may make recommendations to the Student Welfare Board concerning students' welfare.

Designs

All the Halls of Residence have a total optimum capacity of about 9000 students. The designs of the halls are deliberately not identical. For example, the older halls, Mellanby, Tedder, Kuti, Sultan Bello and Queen Elizabeth II halls, were designed by Maxwell Fry and Jane Drew, who were themselves awarded honorary degrees of this University in 1965, in appreciation of their contributions to the physical development of the University. Alexander Brown Hall was designed by Messrs Watkins Gray and Partners, as a part of the overall design of the University College Hospital Complex. The two larger halls, Independence and Nnamdi Azikwe Halls, were designed by Messrs Adenrele, Omisore, Adebanjo Associates. Obafemi Awolowo Hall was, however, designed by Messrs Allied Architects in 1974. The Abdul-salami Abubakar Hall was designed by the Federal Ministry of Works.

MELLANBY HALL

Professor O. A. Agbede	-	Hall Master
Dr. A. I. Atanda	-	Hall Warden

Mellanby Hall, the University's first residential hall, was formally opened on 17 November, 1952. It is named after Kenneth Mellanby, first principal of the University College Ibadan, Ibadan (1947- 1953). It was renovated in 2009 by Zain Nigeria through the help of Chief (Dcn.) Gamaliel Onosode, OFR. A seminar room was constructed during this period of renovation and named after Chief G. Onosode, OFR (Onosode Semiar Room). The hall now has a basket ball court and volley ball court for students' recreation.

TEDDER HALL

Professor V. O. Taiwo - Hall Master
K. O. K. Popoola - Hall Warden

Tedder Hall, is named after Lord Tedder (1890-1967), Marshall of the Royal Air Force and Chancellor of Cambridge University (1950-1967), who formally opened the present site of the University of Ibadan on 17 November, 1952, when the Hall was also formally opened.

KUTI HALL

Professor O. A. Moronkola - Hall Master
Dr. I. A. Adejoro - Hall Warden

Kuti Hall was formally opened in 1954. It is named after the late Rev. Israel Oladotun Ransome-Kuti, President of the Nigerian Union of Teachers, and a member of the historical Elliot Commission on Higher Education in West Africa (1934-1945). Majority of the report of the Commission, to which he subscribed, led to the establishment of the University of Ibadan and of similar institutions of Higher education in West Africa.

SULTAN BELLO HALL

Professor L. A. Akinbile - Hall Master
Dr. A. A. Olapade - Hall Warden

Bello Hall was formally opened in 1962 by late Sir Alhaji Ahmadu Bello (1909-1966). The Hall is named after his great-grandfather, Muhammad Bello (1781-1837), a scholar, poet, administrator, soldier and chief builder of the Sokoto Caliphate.

QUEEN ELIZABETH II HALL

Professor Bamidele I. Olu-Owolabi Hall Mistress
Dr. Catherine Chovwen - Hall Warden

Queen Elizabeth Hall is an undergraduate women's hall. It is named after Her Majesty, Queen Elizabeth II, Queen of Great Britain and Northern Ireland, who visited the University of Ibadan in February 1956 and performed the formal opening ceremony of the Hall.

ALEXANDER BROWN HALL

Professor T. K. Hamzat	-	Hall Master
Dr. Folasade A. Bello	-	Hall Warden

Alexander Brown Hall is a mixed hall for clinical students. It was opened in 1957, and named in 1971, after the late Professor Alexander Brown, the first Professor of Medicine of the University.

INDEPENDENCE HALL

Professor A. A. Elueze	-	Hall Master
Dr. J. A. Ayangunna	-	Hall Warden

Independence Hall was formally opened in 1961. It is named in commemoration of Nigeria's attainment of political independence on 01 October, 1960.

NNAMDI AZIKIWE HALL

Professor E. O. Ayoola	-	Hall Master
Dr. O. A. Adebiyi	-	Hall Warden

Nnamdi Azikiwe Hall was formally opened in 1962. It is named after Dr. Nnamdi Azikiwe, the first Governor-General of Independent Nigeria, first President of the Federal Republic of Nigeria (1963-1966), and Chancellor of the University of Nigeria, Nsukka (1961-1966).

QUEEN IDIA HALL

Professor Ajibola O. Falaye	-	Hall Mistress
Dr. Ruth Adio-Moses	-	Hall Warden

Idia Hall was opened during the 1975/76 session as part of the Queen Elizabeth II Hall. It became a full-fledged hall during the 1976/77 session. It was named after the 15th Century Bini Queen who led the Binis to the victorious Battle of Idah, and whose mask, commissioned by her son Oba Esigie, was the symbol for Festac '77.

TAFAWA BALEWA HALL

Professor O. Y. Ogunsanwo	-	Hall Warden
Dr. O. A. Boboye	-	Hall Warden

Tafawa Balewa Hall is the University's first postgraduate hall of residence for men and women. It was opened in 1968 and named after Alhaji Tafawa Balewa, first Prime Minister of Independent Nigeria (1960-1966), and first visitor of the University of Ibadan as an autonomous institution.

OBAFEMI AWOLOWO HALL

Professor Folake Onayemi - Hall Master
Dr. Kunbi Labeodan - Hall Warden

Initially, Obafemi Awolowo Hall was the second postgraduate Hall of residence for men and women. It was opened in 1986 under the name Postgraduate Students' village. However, on the recommendation of the University of Ibadan Students' Union, the Hall was renamed, Obafemi Awolowo Hall in 1987 by the University Council, in honour of the Late Chief Obafemi Awolowo, the Nigerian Elder Statesman and first Premier of Western Nigeria, who died in May, 1987. It is important to emphasize that Obafemi Awolowo Hall had also provided accommodation for undergraduate and postgraduate students of both sexes. It is now a female undergraduate Hall of Residence with effect from the 2012/2013 session.

ABDUL-SALAM ABUBAKAR HALL

Professor Y. Raji - Hall Master
Dr. G. A. Akinboye - Hall Warden

A post graduate hall of residence donated to the University by the former Head of State and Commander-in- Chief of the Armed Forces of the Federal Republic of Nigeria, General Abdul-Salami Abubakar, GCFR, during his tenure as the Visitor to the University (1998-1999). The hall houses both male and female postgraduate students as well as foreign students.

UNIVERSITY SERVICES

THE PRESS

The University Press developed from a small hand-platen printing establishment attached to the Library to a modern well-equipped Printing Press.

The main objectives of the Press are:

1. To serve the University in all its routine printing of stationery, cards etc.;
2. To print official University reports, circulars, journals, etc.;
3. To print and publish such educational, cultural and research materials that would further the general aims of the University and in particular the works which are referred to it by the Publications Committee of Senate.

All routine printing enquiries should be made to the Manager, Ibadan University Printery, University of Ibadan.

THE BOOKSHOP

Opening Hours*:

Monday to Friday	8:00 a.m. – 5:00 p.m.
Saturday	9:00 a.m. – 1:00 p.m.

Before the University Bookshop, which is owned by the University, was incorporated as a limited liability company in November 1956, its business was largely carried out in one room at the basement of the Library.

The Bookshop grew gradually, and moved its premises to the Tower Court area where it was accommodated until December, 1967. In January 1968, it moved to the present site with a selling area of over 12,000 square feet, on two floors.

An important feature of the development of the Bookshop is the request coming to it from other universities and institutions of higher learning for it to establish branches at their campuses. Thus, from about 1964 onwards, the University Bookshop at Nsukka and Lagos, commenced operation as branches of the University Bookshop at Ibadan. After a while, Nsukka and Lagos decided to run their own University Bookshops. Requests to run branches also came from the University of Benin (then Institute of Technology), and the College of Science and Technology, Port Harcourt; both branches were established in September 1971 and September 1972, respectively. From 1974, Benin set up a separate bookshop.

In January 1972, the University established a campus at Jos, and a branch of the Bookshop was opened there at that time. In October 1973, two new branches were opened at the campuses of the North-East College of Arts and Science, now University of Maiduguri, and the College of Technology, Calabar. In 1976, additional branches were established at the University of Calabar, and University College, Ilorin. The University of Jos took over the running of the former University Bookshop Limited, Jos, and the authorities of the University of Calabar, Calabar also took over the bookshop established there.

Apart from meeting the needs of the immediate University Community, the Bookshop's clientele is very wide, including individual libraries (academic and specialized), colleges and schools, the armed forces, and government departments throughout the Federation. A certain amount of export business is also done through sister bookshops overseas, as well as through libraries and learned institutions in the UK, Europe and America. The Bookshop specializes in Africana and Nigerian materials.

The stock is not limited to undergraduate textbooks, but covers all subjects, both technical and general, from elementary to very advanced and specialized levels. A wide selection of paper-backs, children's books and stationery is also stocked, and there is a gramophone records' section (upstairs) where cultural, local and foreign artistes' recordings can be purchased. Over 25,000 individual titles are in the Bookshop.

A considerable amount of business is done through the post, and any books, if they are still in print can be obtained, no matter where they are published. In certain rare cases, out-of-print books can also be obtained.

The University Bookshop (Nigeria) Limited operates courier services.

Further enquiries about services which the Bookshop can provide should be addressed to the Managing Director, University Bookshop (Nigeria) Limited, University of Ibadan, Ibadan or use any of these numbers: 08030758301, 08074499101, 08155622032; Email address: universitybookshop1957@yahoo.com

THE BOTANICAL GARDEN

The Botanical Garden of the University is being developed to cover 100 acres on the North of the site. Only about 70 acres have been developed. It is situated on either side of the River Ona which is a sluggish perennial stream in the dry season but a turbulent river in flood. The soil is freely drained, mildly acidic and of moderate fertility with alluvial deposits in the river valley and numerous outcrops of granite-gneiss rocks on higher ground.

The University of Ibadan Botanical Garden undertakes conservation programmes on a wide range of endangered and threatened plants mainly supporting in situ conservation programmes. The Garden has over the years demonstrated a high sense of commitment to recreation, education, conservation and sustainable environmental needs of the country as the foremost botanical garden in this part of the world. This could be attested to by the wide range of orchid collections, Bryophyte/fern collections, economic trees, palms and both indigenous and exotic flora as well as the ornamentals. Various exchange programmes existed between the Garden and other gardens of the world. Presently, the Garden can boast of a number of economic plants and some ornamentals

PURPOSE

The Botanical Garden exists primarily to provide for botanical teaching and research in the University as well as recreation for all users; this it does by growing a wide range of plants in the open and few in shade houses, and by providing facilities for experimental work upon living plants. Plants from other countries both of economic value and intrinsic interest are continually introduced into the Garden thus increasing the range of plants grown in the country.

The Botanical Garden is composed of different sections and gardens

The Conserved area

The Horticultural garden

The Nursery

The Children's garden

The Rock garden

The Open field

The Arboretum

The Administrative building

The Medicinal garden

The University of Ibadan Botanical Garden is a member of some International Organizations such as the Association of International Botanical Gardens (A.I.B.G) and the Botanical Gardens Conservation International (B. G. C. I).

THE VISION OF U.I. BOTANICAL GARDENS

- To be at the forefront of protecting plant biodiversity on an international scale.
- To be the centre for plant conservation in order to prevent the extinction of Nigeria's native flora.
- To be the most - sought recreational venue for Nigerians especially in the South West
- To contribute to the educational development of the country.

Curator of the Garden: Dr A. E. Ayodele 08023255482 ayodele@mail.ui.edu.ng, Department of Botany & Microbiology, University of Ibadan

Technologist in Charge*: *Mr. Kayode Owolabi 08023417002

Official Hours: 8:00a.m. – 6:00p.m. Dail

THE ZOOLOGICAL GARDEN

The Zoological Garden was established in 1949 primarily as a Menagerie to support teaching and research in the Department of Zoology. With time, the animal collection grew in number and diversity and the Menagerie gradually became a full fledged Zoo in 1974.

Apart from displaying animals for teaching, research and the entertainment of visitors, the U.I. Zoo is primarily for the conservation of endangered species. The garden is home to a wide array of animals comprising mammals, birds, reptiles and amphibians.

The Zoo has an array of birds which includes: the African Grey Parrot, Lizard Buzzards, Senegal Parrot, Parakeets, Love Birds; different species of Ducks (Lesser Whistling Duck, White Faced and Mallard), Pigeons, Peacocks, Crown Cranes, White Storks, Spur-Winged Geese, Purple Swamp Hens, Ostriches and Emus.

The reptile house in the U.I. Zoo is one of the best around. It houses Gabon Vipers, Royal Pythons, African Pythons, River Turtles, Monitor Lizards, Terrapin Turtles, Black Cobras, Spitting Cobras, slender-Snout Crocodiles, Nile Crocodiles, Night Adder, African Land Tortoises and Spurred Tortoises.

Herbivores include: Horses, Donkeys, Camels, Derby Elands, Maxwell Duiker, Gazelles. There are also Jackals, Warthogs, Lions, Hyenas, Porcupines, Patas Monkeys, Green Monkeys, Putty Nosed Monkeys, Baboons, Drill Monkeys, Mangabey monkeys, Chimpanzees and Giraffes.

As at now, there are plans underway to bring in other animals like Elephant, Zebra, Hippopotamus, Foxes and so many others.

The Zoo welcomes a large number of visitors from far and near every year

EDUCATION

The U.I. Zoo Education Department is dedicated to teaching youngster and adults about wildlife and wild habitats through engaging interactive Zoo programmes. Our offerings for adults, families, children, teens and schools include guided tours, school programmes, and opportunities to meet Zoo experts and get an insider's look at animals and exhibits. All Zoo programmes require advance reservation. Contact information is displayed on the U.I. Zoo website as follows:

THE UNIVERSITY MEDIA CENTRE

The University Media Centre (UMC) is the apex media and audio-visual centre for all the Faculties, Departments and Units in the University. It has a seventeen (17) Member Board as elected by the Faculties and the major arms of the University. The Deputy Vice-Chancellor (Administration) is the statutory Chairman of the Board.

Initially, the audio-visual service which was based in the Faculty of Arts was the nucleus for media services because that was the oldest Faculty in the University. The media service in the institution expanded to cover field research, inaugural lectures, convocation and other ceremonies. Consequently, the Senate, on 27 May, 1985, approved a Board for UMC (University Media Centre) and was ratified by the Governing Council on 13 November, 1986. The University Media Centre (UMC) was subsequently accredited by the National Universities Commission (NUC) on 17 May, 1989. Thereafter, the change of name was effected from the Audio-visual Centre to the University Media Centre.

Functions of the University Media Centre

The Centre performs the following functions:

1. Provides coverage for all University Inaugural Lectures.
2. Covers University Convocation ceremonies.
3. Covers all University Lectures and Ceremonies.
4. Provides lecture and research coverage for staff.
5. Provides field research coverage.
6. Provides Public Address and technical expertise at functions.
7. Services University Audio-Visual equipment in offices and Principal Officers' quarters.

The Technical Unit has evolved into a long wave modest broadcasting Unit for the University and adjoining community- Diamond FM 101. The Centre also provides Video-conferencing facility to link up with other centres of learning and a broad-based audio-visual services Unit whereby classes could be scheduled in shifts. An academic editing Unit whereby students or staff could book studio times to preview lectures and research tapes. A broad-based video archive to document historical and ceremonial aspects of the University activities.

THE UNIVERSITY HEALTH SERVICES (UHS)

MISSION: Responding to the health needs of students and members of staff.

The UHS is a user friendly outfit that provides Comprehensive Primary health services to students, members of staff, staff dependants and the community as a whole. The Health Center is situated on Jaja Avenue. The UHS is headed by a Director who is directly responsible to the Vice-Chancellor. The establishment has other Medical Doctors, supported by Nursing Officers; registered Pharmacists, Laboratory Scientists, Radiographers and other medical ancillary personnel.

SERVICES:

Out-Patients Clinic / Emergencies;

The Out-Patients clinic is open Monday to Friday for general consultation from 8:00am to 4:00pm. In addition, there is a 24hour emergency service provided by the Health Center.
Due to the increasing health needs of the community, there are weekly specialist clinics:

(a) Mental Health (Wednesday) 9:00a.m.–2:00 p.m

(b) Orthopaedic (Tuesday) 12 noon – 2:00 p.m

(c) Dental Clinic (Recently approved). All are operational within the UHS complex.

For accessibility to health care, there are three health posts which were approved recently to augment those at the Sports center and the International School, University of Ibadan. The health posts are at the Independence Hall, Faculty of Arts and the Distance Learning Center, Idi-Ose.

Sick Bay

An eighteen bed ward used for the treatment and isolation of students and members of staff when they are ill.

Pharmacy

This Unit attends to prescriptions and is involved in counseling and patients' education.

Preventive Medicine and Public Health Unit:

Public Health Nurses are in charge of the Immunization Clinic, Family planning clinic with MUDAFEM Program and Infant's welfare clinic. They are also involved in health visits to Halls of Residence, Cafeteria, Canteens and Kitchens. The unit is in partnership with the Damien Foundation in the treatment and control of Infectious and communicable diseases especially Tuberculosis.

Environmental Health Unit

The Unit is currently responsible for the fumigation of halls of residence, staff quarters and offices against pests and rodents; and evacuation of septic tanks. Refuse collection and disposal is currently out sourced.
Anti-Malaria and rodent control within the campus and an anti-rabies programme for pet dogs are also operated in conjunction with Departments in the faculty of Veterinary Medicine of the University.

Surgery
Minor surgical cases are attended to at the complex.

Medical Social Works Unit
Involved in students health counselling and a 24-hour support for referrals outside the UHS.

Physical Therapy
Provides both primary and secondary levelc care including sports injury. The unit is accredited to provide secondary care under the National Health Insurance Scheme.

Optometry
Involved in visual care, medical screening of eye problems and prescription of lenses.

Laboratory services
Well equipped to operate at secondary health care level.

Referral services
The UHS as a comprehensive primary health centre is in collaboration with the University College Hospital, Ibadan for management of patients who require specialist care. This is available 24-hours and it is facilitated by the UHS ambulance services.

ABADINA MEDIA RESOURCE CENTRE (ACADEMIC DEPARTMENT)

Research: School Library Media Programme for Schools, Nigerian Children's Literature; Information Literacy skills for Pupils and Students, Computer and Library Automation, Media Resource Management, etc.

iv. Conduct courses of study for school librarians, teacher/librarians, children's librarians, library assistants and media specialists in primary and post-primary institutions;
v. Provide advisory and consultancy services to government, schools, colleges and other organizations in relation to management of school libraries/media resource centres as may be requested from time to time.

Opening Hours

Monday – Friday	8.00a.m. – 7.00p.m.
Saturday	8.00 a.m. – 1.00 p.m.

Learning Resource Collection

The Centre has a growing collection of books and book materials for use of children and young adults as well as adults working with children. Registered users can borrow learning resources for use outside the Centre.

PHYSICAL PLANNING AT THE UNIVERSITY OF IBADAN

Years ago, the Professor Falase Administration took the bull by the horn and paid the price to evolve the first post independence Master Plan for this University. The plan was successfully completed and defended before the University Administration and University Council before it was approved. However, the plan could not be implemented because there was no institutional apparatus on ground to implement same. This vacuum remained so until the last quarter of the year 2009 when the Professor Bamiro Administration presented a paper to Council on the need for the establishment of a Physical Planning Unit at the University of Ibadan. This is coming 62 years after the establishment of the University. Council approved (in principle) and thus the Physical Planning Unit (PPU) was born. On the 23rd of November, 2009, the Pioneer Director was appointed for a three year term.

The process of staffing the Unit began in February 2010 with the advertisement, short listing and interview in March 2010 culminating in the appointment of two Planning Officers, who resumed on the 1st of June, 2010. The Unit's only vehicle, a Hilux pick up van was delivered on the 24th September, 2010 to facilitate the campus monitoring and development control. The Unit's offices and vehicle were officially commissioned on the 26th August, 2010 by Professor Bamiro, the then Vice-Chancellor.

The Physical Planning Unit is responsible to the Vice-Chancellor for a multitude of functions. Ideally organized in five integrated sections – the Physical Planning, Estate, Architecture, Land Surveying and Quantity Surveying Sections, the Unit started its operation with the Planning Unit, but in March, 2012 the Estate Unit was merged with the Physical Planning Unit for the realization of the Unit's responsibilities.

In order to preserve the environment which the University has nurtured over time and make it better, the functions of the PPU include: faithful supervision of the Master Plan and strict adherence to its implementation in collaboration with other professionals in ensuring that all campus developments comply with Master Plan objectives and provisions; provide timely, effective and efficient development control measures; siting/planning of new projects, surveys of roads and new building sites, establishment of bench marks etc. and analysis; determination of university and related property boundaries and investigating all encroachments; auditing of spaces and infrastructure and their levels of utilization; checking the impact of a proposal/project on the environment; studies/research on the physical development of the University and its environs; participating in the landscaping of the campus and other housing estates.

In addition, the activities of the PPU include the development and the maintenance of the University properties (superstructures), development and maintenance of parks, gardens and grounds; maintenance of university buildings (estate development); housing allocation and environmental database providing the necessary data for University's buildings and grounds (allocation of staff houses- senior and junior; development and maintenance of database for same); maintenance of hedges, lawns and ornamental trees (Horticulture) and monitoring and supervision of such services; campus tree management; environmental sanitation (maintenance of University sanitation facilities such as refuse collection and waste management; traffic control; fumigation, control of stray animals; reporting road and water damages); management of the mini-markets and provision of new ones (if need be); regularly watching over the estates and properties of the University. Owing to the late arrival of the PPU, six decades plus after the opening of the University, some of the functions of the Unit have been taken over by many units and departments in the University but these functions have been performed only sub-optimally with unintended undesired consequences.

RESEARCH MANAGEMENT OFFICE

The Research Management Office of the University of Ibadan was established in 2010 to provide central coordination of research activities in the University.

The principal functions of the office are to:

- Advance the Mission and Vision of the University as they relate to research;
- Advise the University on research policy, under the general supervision of the research sub-committee of the Development Committee;
- Mobilize external research funds by, among other means, developing and submitting proposals which satisfy the requirements of the funding agencies;
- Facilitate the University liaison with external funding agencies;
- Ensure that the University's interests are protected in the negotiation of grants and contracts;
- Facilitate financial accountability in the administration of grants and research- related contracts;
- Facilitate the ethical conduct of research in the University;

- ❖ Collaborate with relevant units in identifying, developing, protecting and marketing the University's Intellectual Property and promoting Knowledge –Transfer- Networks with the private sector;
- ❖ In conjunction with the Research Management Sub-committee of the Development Committee, administer the Research Development Fund and facilitate its functions;
- ❖ Provide a report of its activities annually to Council and Senate through the Research Management Sub-committee of the Development Committee;
- ❖ Carry out such other functions as are devolved to it by the Research Management Sub-committee of the Development Committee.

CENTRE FOR SOCIAL ORIENTATION [CenSO]

As a result of the positive impact made by the University of Ibadan Anti-Cultism Campaign Committee on the campus, in the pursuit of its objective of ridding the campus of cultism and the subsequent implicit demand by the community that the committee takes more responsibility than just crusading against cultism; and the limitation its name imposed on it in that wise; a proposal to transform it to Centre for Social Orientation was presented to Senate which consequently approved that it be so transformed on Monday, 28 March, 2011. It was thus mandated to promote social values as well as work and study ethics in addition to its initial mandate of eliminating cultism on the University of Ibadan. This was sequel to the fact that social ills are best fought by prevention through the mechanism of appeal, sensitisation, enlightenment and education as well as through intelligence gathering and social research aimed at identifying causes, effects of and solutions to social ills and misbehaviour of which cultism is a prominent result. This is believed to a better strategy of curbing not only cultism but also other forms of social ills and to be equally well positioned to give appropriate orientation to all members of the community in order to equip them to synergistically move the university toward a world class one as stated in its vision. This will invariably create a very conducive and enabling environment for quality assurance and control in teaching, learning, research and community service.

The Vice-Chancellor subsequently mandated the Chairman to take charge of the Centre for Social Orientation. However, Dr. Adams Onuka, who directed the Centre from 1 April, 2011, was formally appointed the Director on 1 April, 2012. CenSO networks with Unit CenSO Committees in both academic and non-academic units of the University so as to be as effective as possible. Nevertheless, Anti-Cultism Campaign Committee continues to operate as a semi-autonomous unit of CenSO.

The objectives of the centre are:

- To continue to carry out the crusade against cultism and cultic activities in all ramifications using networks of credible members of the community to gather relevant information on cultic activities and their sponsors, supporters and perpetrators. This, it will do through advocacy, sensitization, seminars among others.

- It will also endeavour through appropriate means to prevent, curb and combat cultism where it becomes absolutely necessary; as well as counsel, rehabilitate and restore renounced cultists to normal life through monitoring and mentoring.
- Carry out enlightenment campaign against cultism and allied evils.
- Fighting cultism through dramas, musical shows, sporting activities, academic completion and road walk.
- Re-orienting the entire community towards imbibing good social behaviours and good character so that the University can enjoy peace and harmony which will in turn create enabling environment conducive for teaching, learning, research and service provision which all constitute the core mandates of the University and also reduce the incidence of cultism.
- To ensure that causes of disharmony among staff/staff, management/staff unions and between staff/students are identified and resolved amicably.
- Work towards the curtailment/eradication of dangerous cultic and occultic activities on our campus.
- Coordinates the character moulding process of all members of the community through constant education and enlightenment.
- Serves as ombudsman of the University to foster cordial relationship between staff and students and among members of staff, in order to improve the tempo of discipline on campus and the concomitant reduction in disciplinary cases as well as violent cases so that the energy, time and funds dissipated on disciplinary can be channeled to profitable ventures.
- Research into causes of anti-social behaviours and disharmony and proffer solutions which will promote harmony and peace on campus thereby engendering quality teaching, learning, research and service provision.
- Organize workshops, conferences and seminars that will engender good social behaviours and quality academic, research and support output, thus contributing immeasurably towards moving the University to highest level of a world class University.
- To work with the relevant University organs among which are the Directorate of Quality Assurance, Gender Mainstreaming, Students' Union Leadership, various Units (academic and non-academic) towards the realization and sustenance of its objectives.
- To give proper work orientation to newly employed academic and support staff in collaboration with the appropriate unit as well as give continuous education on work ethics.
- To advise the community on any detected lapses and suggest the best ways to tackle them.
- Liaise among units to promote cordiality on campus.
- Any such other functions the university may assign to her.

Functions

Specifically the following among others are the functions of the Centre:

- To educate and/or enlighten the members of the community with the view of giving them proper orientation on acceptable social norms/behaviours, including giving orientation on the University ethos to newly recruited staff in concert with appropriate units of the University.
- To organize educative programmes on Social Behaviours through lectures/conferences /seminars/workshops/dramas/musical concerts in collaboration with relevant bodies in the university.
- To organize interactive sensitization fora, where both students and university staff can interact outside the classroom for public education/enlightenment.
- To act as ombudsman in the University so that rifts among members could be nipped in the bud and thus minimized.
- To receive and utilize information on anti-social behaviours for both preventive and curative measures depending on when such information was received.
- To initiate measures aimed at preventing and checkmating all acts of violence including cultism and rescuing as well as rehabilitating the victims of such acts of violence.
- To take measures aimed at restoring, reintegrating and rehabilitating repentant cultists/perpetrators of violence in order to give them new orientation.
- To counsel both staff and students on acceptable social behaviors as the need arises.
- To mediate and use alternative dispute resolution method to resolve conflicts in their infancy.
- To research, monitor and evaluate the status of anti-social occurrences with a view to suggesting ways out.
- To form some semi-formal intelligence gathering group/squad.
- To work with and report cases requiring security attention to the security unit.
- To create a website for information gathering from willing members of the general public including members of the University community.
- Perform any other such duties the Vice Chancellor may from time to assign to the Centre
- To periodically publish and disseminate information on the right behaviour and on threats to good behaviour
- Develop policy on social behaviour by galvanizing whatever is on ground for the enlightenment of and behaviour guidance of the community including keeping our environment in order
- To produce annual report for Senate among others.

These functions automatically impose on the Centre the need to work in collaboration with the various units of the university if it is to make success of its mandate.

The Centre operates through the following units:

✓ Committee on Anti-Cultism;

- ✓ Ombudsman;
- ✓ Intelligence gathering and research;
- ✓ Publicity/public Social Orientation Enlightenment.

Motto, Vision & Mission

The Motto:

- ➢ Moulding Character for Nation Building

The Vision of the Centre:

- ➢ Creating excellent academic and research environment for effective teaching, learning and researching in the University of Ibadan, Nigeria to make it a world class University

The Mission:

- ➢ Use the instrumentality of research, intelligence gathering and community cooperative synergy to curb cultism and all other social ills on UI campus,
- ➢ Educating/enlightening the University of Ibadan Community on the appropriate and acceptable social behaviours in order to curb cultism and other forms of anti-social behaviours,
- ➢ Researching into social behaviours with the intent of proffering appropriate solutions to any detected anti-social behaviours in order to reduce the incidence of anti-social behaviours including cultism,
- ➢ To act as ombudsman in the University thereby creating the right environment for excellent teaching, learning and research and minimizing the incidence of cultism and other social ills as well as conflicts among members of UI Community,
- ➢ To instill the spirit of acceptable work and study ethics in members of the community through constant interactive fora in order to create the enabling environment for teaching, learning, research and community service,
- ➢ Sustaining a peaceful campus through intelligence gathering in order to nip untoward plan to disrupt campus peace in the bud.

- Secretary to the Board

Functions

- ✓ Articulate Programmes for the Centre
- ✓ Assist the Director in the discharge of his/her duties
- ✓ Advise the Board on policy matters
- ✓ Consider and approve Central Unit programmes
- ✓ Monitor the execution of CenSO programmes
- ✓ Make recommendations to the Board of the Centre
- ✓ Consider unit reports, etc.

Benefits of CenSO:

- ✓ Greater level of peace
- ✓ All hands will be on deck to engender better level of cooperation and collaboration in ensuring good behaviour on campus
- ✓ More people will be involved in promoting good/positive social behaviour
- ✓ There will be reduction in acts of indiscipline on campus
- ✓ Enabling environment for excellence in academic and character will ensue, thereby promoting the spirit of entrepreneurship in and internationalization of the university
- ✓ Adequate human security
- ✓ Absolute freedom of movement
- ✓ Campus harmony
- ✓ Provides enabling peaceful environment for quality assurance in the university
- ✓ Promotion of intellectualism
- ✓ The likely tremendous goodwill

The Centre shall also be involved in screening whenever and wherever such exercise is being carried out within the University.

Who should be involved in the eradication of anti-social behaviours including anti-cultism?

- The answer is very simple: you and me: every one of us: the VC, DVCs, Registrar, Bursar, University Librarian, Provost, Deans/Directors, HOD's, FOs, Wardens, Religious Leaders, the security personnel, the committees, Academics, Support Staff, Students and indeed all members of the university community.

How can we be involved?

- Through this interactive session
- Discussion and suggestions of modalities
- Sharing of experiences
- Contribute to strategic/action plan for achieving the Centre's mandate as well a social ethics policy formulation for the university
- Strategising for effective monitoring of goings on and promptly reporting as well as dealing anti-social behaviours in their ramifications
- Evaluate from time to time the situation on campus with regard to anti-social ethics

Why should we be involved?

If we are not involved, then:

- Any of us could become a victim of cultism and other anti-social behaviours
- No one may be able to achieve anything substantial when anti-social behaviours and in cultism turns violent while our quest for quality assurance will definitely become a mirage.
- Non-challance may lead to stagnation or stunted development and may become counter-productive for quality improvement
- UI may not be able to attract substantial funding outside the usual government allocation and its paltry IGR, if cultism and other anti-social behaviours reign supreme
- Campus will be surrounded by the atmosphere of fear and distrust

Our involvement is:

- To create and maintain a continued peaceful atmosphere within the University
- To sustain an environment conducive for intellectual pursuit
- To attract internal and external goodwill
- To create and maintain conditions necessary for promoting continued development of the campus in all ramifications
- To ensure sustenance of a disciplined community life
- To help in nipping conflicts in the bud and/or resolution of conflicts in their infancy so as to bring harmony among the various stakeholders in the University particularly among staff, students and other members
- To assist the University management in realizing the goal of moving the University forward

Prayer:

- That faculties/institutes/units/various segments of the community be involved in our threefold mission of prevention of social disorders, rescuing and restoration of victims of social disorders to normal life by having their committees on positive behaviours with the mandate to re-orientate the members and thereby prevent cultism/occultism and other anti-social behaviours. This is why the various units had set up their own CenSO committees.

Action Required

- Every one's involvement in this crusade
- Denunciation or renunciation of cultism and other anti-social behaviours

Strategy

- We hereby inform the Community that our approach is non-combative, non-punitive unless in extreme cases, but educative, restorative, appeal, preventive and rehabilitative when necessary.

Conclusion

Fora, symposia and constant interaction will therefore, be convened from time to time to solicit cooperation and the community's unflinching support towards the accomplishment of the objectives of the Centre viz: curtailing cultic activities and other anti-social activities through instilling of the habit of positive social attitudes and behaviours in all members of the community as well as promoting harmony and good neighbourliness among all stakeholders in the university. Information reaching us is that the Centre for Social Orientation is more appealing to generality of the community and is more likely to elicit the cooperation and assistance of all and sundry.

It is pertinent to state unequivocally that it is a duty for all of us to accomplish and not that of the Centre alone. This is the reason why it has been proposed and approved that all academic faculties/institutes/centres including DLC/departments and support departments like the Registry, Bursary, Works and Maintenance set up Social Orientation Network comprising people of impeccable and proven character.

OFFICE OF INTERNATIONAL PROGRAMMES

Introduction

The Office of International Programmes (OIP) was opened in May 2009 to advance the internationalization of the University of Ibadan. The office started as a MacArthur facility and became a full-fledged university unit in April 2010 following senate approval.

Vision Statement

The vision of OIP is to enlarge the University of Ibadan's frontiers of international relationships.

Mission Statement
The mission of the OIP is to provide the capacity for faculty, staff and students to be global citizens and sustain the University of Ibadan's image as the premier university through its international activities.

Structure of the OIP
The Office of International Programmes is structured into five units namely:
1. Office of the Director
2. Programme Development
3. Communication and Liaison
4. International Staff and Students Services
5. Legal Unit (common unit shared with the Research Management Office, RMO)

To accomplish of its mission, the Office of International Programmes:
1. Promotes the University of Ibadan's vision of internationalization.
2. Coordinates and supports international academic programmes.
3. Facilitates capacity building for global citizenship.
4. Generates and disseminates information on international opportunities.
5. Promotes and sustains international partnerships
6. Advocates the internationalization of facilities and programmes.

Details of Activities

   - ❖ Serve as University Liaison with various international agencies and entry point for international activities on campus.
   - ❖ Advise the University on policy relating to international programmes under the general supervision of the Academic Links Sub-committee.
2. Coordination and support of international academic programmes.
   - ❖ Coordinate and support international academic programmes involving the University of Ibadan and institutions outside Nigeria.
   - ❖ Attract international scholars and students to UI, assist in their adjustment on campus and provide immigration support services.
   - ❖ Provide efficient protocol services for UI staff and students and visiting staff and students.

- ❖ Keep inventory and database of all foreign students and staff visiting UI and UI students and staff visiting other parts of the world.

3. Facilitation of capacity building for global citizenship.
   - ❖ Organize enlightenment programmes for staff and students on fellowships, grants and other international opportunities.
   - ❖ Promote students and scholars international experience and exchange programmes.
   - ❖ Promote faculty expertise in support of international initiatives.
   - ❖ Facilitate international lectures, seminars and conferences

4. Generation and dissemination of information on international opportunities.
   - ❖ Define and announce emerging and existing catchment issues about international research and education potentials in Ibadan
   - ❖ Disseminate information on international opportunities, conferences, workshops, seminars and research output of UI staff, personnel, research programmes and services.
   - ❖ Collaborate with other relevant units on campus to organize training and workshops on aspects of international programmes.
   - ❖ Collaborate with other relevant units on campus to promote and showcase Nigerian and African culture.
   - ❖ Provision of travel manuals and information on weather, appropriate clothing, safety etc.

5. Promoting and sustaining international partnerships.
   - ❖ Coordinate and monitor the implementation of MOUs
   - ❖ Strengthen existing exchange programms and linkages and actively pursue new international initiatives and collaboration.
   - ❖ Work with the Research Management Office (RMO) on international collaborations and partnerships.
   - ❖ Give recognition, acknowledgements and awards to outstanding collaborations and outputs.

6. Advocating the internationalization of facilities and programmes
   - ❖ Promote the establishment of up-to-date facilities required in UI for international collaboration.
   - ❖ Promote curricula and extra-curricula activities for the development of international awareness.

YORUBA LANGUAGE CENTRE

The Yorùbá Language Centre (YLC) was established as a non-degree awarding centre in 2010 following the cooperative agreement entered into in 2009 by the University of Ibadan (U.I) and American Councils for International Education (ACIE) based in Washington DC, U.S.A. on the Yorùbá Language Flagship Programme.

The Centre's Aims and Objectives

a) To be the leader in designing, supporting and implementing functional Yorùbá language education with a view to encouraging and promoting social interaction, integration and development.
b) To produce well-researched materials on Yorùbá language pedagogy as foreign language acquisition and second language acquisition, and similarity teach Yorùbá language and culture.
c) To offer professional and/or support services in the Yorùbá medium to various sectors within and outside academic institutions worldwide.

Programme Organization and Activities

The YLC has three focus areas of operation namely:

- ❖ the Yorùbá Language Acquisition (YLA) Unit
- ❖ the Research and Material Development (RMD) Unit
- ❖ the Service(s) Unit

Academic Programme and Activities

A competency-based approach is adopted for the centre's Yorùbá proficiency programmes with emphasis on interpersonal communication structured around the four skills, namely, speaking, reading, listening and writing. The participants engage in various activities such as individual presentations and practice sessions, skits, conversations, role plays, language table, weekend educational trips on Saturdays to places of cultural and historical significance for Yorùbá culture, outdoor classes, etc., for the purpose of engaging in communication with Yorùbá native speakers; cooking classes (Yorùbá foods) and specific co-curricular activities including film series and guest lectures designed to maximize the exposure of participants to Yorùbá culture in particular and Nigerian culture in general.

Host Families

The centre provides opportunity for the participants in its programmes to live with host families on campus (for safety/security reasons) as an integral part of their Yorùbá language and culture learning experience. The host families are professors/senior university staff who are Yorùbá speakers and whose homes/houses have adequate amenities to meet the individual needs of participants in the centre'sprogrammes.

Achievements:

Training of Students from the Novice Level of Proficiency InYorùbá

(a). From September 2010 to May 2011 (9 months), the Centre successfully ran courses for five (5) undergraduate American students on the academic–year *Yorùbá Language Flagship (YLF)* programme

(b). Between 2011 and 2013, the Centre successfully ran courses for eleven (11) postgraduate and undergraduate American students on a fall-term Yorùbá Language and Culture *African Languages Initiative (AFLI)* programme.

Both programmes in (a) and (b) above were funded by the National Security Education Programme (NSEP) and Boren Scholarships through American Councils for International Education (ACIE) based in Washington DC., USA.

(c). Between 2013 and 2016, the Centre successfully ran courses for forty two (42) postgraduate and undergraduate American students on the Group Project Abroad (GPA) overseas Yorùbá language summer intensive programme funded by Fulbright-Hays through the Department of Education (DOE) in Washington DC and administered by the University of Florida, Gainesville, Florida.

The foreign students on the programmes stated in (a) – (c) above came from the following twenty six (26) American universities and one (1) American college: University of Wisconsin-Madison, New York University, Carnegie Mellon University, Georgetown University, University of Maryland, University of Chicago, Seattle University, Arizona State University, University of IIIinois, University of California, Bowie State University, American University, Trinity University, University of Florida, Cornell University, University of Texas-Austin, Harvard University, Columbia University, Stanford University, Michigan State University, University of Georgia-Athens, Howard University, University of Wisconsin-Milwaukee, Rutgers University, Indiana University, University of Pennsylvania and Borough of Manhattan Community College, New York.

(d). Between 2010 and 2017, the Centre ran courses for twenty one (21) private students (including a Captain of the United States Air Force, a Malaysian-Chinese and a University Professor) from Nigeria, USA, Malaysia, UK, Brazil, Lebanon and the Netherlands on the Yorùbá Language Special Proficiency (YLSP) programme.

In keeping with the programmes and activities of its Research and Material Development (RMD) component, the Centre produced a comprehensive Yoruba advanced proficiency-level text book that focuses on complex greetings, literary traditions, social, political, religious, ethical, cultural, economic, health, ethnicity and gender issues and films. The new book, which is sponsored by the National African Language Resource Centre (NALRC) and published by NALRC Press, Bloomington, Indiana, USA, is based on interpretive communication as well as interpersonal communication ordered in line with Bloom's taxonomy, and is carefully structured around the four skills, namely, speaking, reading, listening and writing.

Workshops

The Centre organized local and international intensive training workshops for postgraduate students as instructors, conversation assistants/language partners, etc., aimed at equipping them with current global practice in the field of Language Teaching with emphasis on Interpersonal, Interpretive and Presentational Mode of communication, Curriculum Development, Lesson Planning, Class Control and Management, Evaluation, and other Best Principles of Effective Language Teaching.

Welcome to Gender Mainstreaming Office, University of Ibadan, Ibadan, Nigeria

Gender Mainstreaming Office (GMO) is a unit established under the Office of the Deputy Vice-Chancellor, (Academic), University of Ibadan. The office is a product of extensive research and programme activities funded by the John D and Katherine T MacArthur Foundation between 2007 and 2011. The University of Ibadan has been in the forefront of gender research and advocacy in Nigerian and African Universities since the establishment of the Women's Research and Documentation Centre (WORDOC) in 1986. In September 2006, the Association of African Universities (AAU) chose the University of Ibadan as the trialling centre for its training modules on Gender Mainstreaming Project (GMP) in African Higher Education. In January and March, 2007, the University, through WORDOC, held two down streaming workshops for the university community and surrounding tertiary institutions. As a result of the success of these programmes, the University Management sought to sustain the programme by establishing the GMO.

The unit is committed to promoting a gender-sensitive institutional culture and to widen the scope of gender mainstreaming in Nigeria. From 2007 to 2011, the GMP conducted research on the gender situation in the University, reviewed policies and regulations and the curricula for their gender sensitivity, conducted research on sexual harassment and analysed data on access, achievement, facilities, security and the environment. These provided input into the series of consensus building workshops for the University's Gender Policy and Sexual Harassment Policy. Peer education and gender sensitisation workshops are held regularly, and the University's community radio and national media have supported the initiative.

This gender mainstreaming initiative of the University of Ibadan derives from the focus on gender equity which is strongly embedded within the framework of fundamental human rights and gender justice. Gender equity is also one of the key focuses of the Millennium Development Goals and sanctioned in the Constitution of Nigeria (1999) which prohibits discrimination on the grounds of gender.

The functions of the Gender Mainstreaming Office includes:

Training through conferences, workshops, Sensitisation, Monitoring and Evaluation, Investigation of Gender and Sexual harassment issues, Research, Consultancies (Gender Mainstreaming for organizations and institutions), Mentoring, Advocacy, Counselling

About Us
The Gender Mainstreaming Office

The University of Ibadan (U.I) is commonly viewed as a gender neutral space in which neither sex is advantaged. Like most Nigerian universities, the Act of U.I. contains a general non-discriminatory clause prohibiting exclusion on account of "ethnic grouping, sex, place of birth or of family origin or religious or political persuasion from studentship, employment or membership of anybody established by the Act" (University of Ibadan Act, 1962) but the institution has no Gender Equity Policy, no Equal Opportunities Policy, no Affirmative Action in respect of gender, and no Sexual Harassment Policy. Until very recently there were only a few gender sensitisation schemes for staff and students (Association of Commonwealth Universities Report, 2004.) and U.I is constituted as an inequitably gendered space with implications for its communities- male and female academics, administrative staff and students.

Until recently, there were few gender gestures such as electing or appointment of one or two females as Principal Officers, Deans, managers and Administrators as well as a few academics, mostly female might incorporate a gender component in research as an "add on" while the business of the institution continues in its gender-blind manner. This prompted the constitution of the gender mainstreaming committee that worked on the development of the Gender Equity Policy and the Sexual Harassment Policy documents of the University of Ibadan, Ibadan. Nigeria and approved in August, 2012.

The commitment of the University Management to the success of the Gender Mainstreaming programme has been outstanding. Hence the Gender Mainstreaming Programme has made significant progress since its inception in 2007 when the MacArthur Foundation gave a grant for mainstreaming gender into all aspects of the University. The programme was designed to introduce gender mainstreaming process as a core programme in the University of Ibadan so that the institution can apply a gender lens to all aspects of its activities routinely, enable women and men to share resources and power on a fair basis, make and implement policies which will raise up any previously disadvantaged group and resolve any unfair, gender-insensitive practices in a just manner.

The Gender Mainstreaming programme now has its secretariat at the Gender Mainstreaming Office – a temporary space provided by the university management. However prior to these, series of activities were conducted across the university. Activities carried out by the GMP between December 2007 and November 2014 includes: Formation of Gender Mainstreaming Committee, Gender and Sexual Harassment climate in UI, Review of University Policies, A Gender- Audit, Sensitisation workshops, Appointment of Gender Focal Persons(GFPs) Specilised workshops, Consensus-Building workshops, Peer Educator's Workshop, Appointment of a new Principal Investigator, Acquisition of Office space, Renovation of Office Space, Purchase of office equipment, Regular interaction through the social media network (e.g. facebook, twitter)

Gender Policy Vision
To be a world class university where gender equity is institutionalized, and students and staff integrate gender friendly perspectives into personal and professional dealings in achieving the aims and goals of the university.

Policy Mission
To expand the frontiers of knowledge by cultivating a gender sensitive space for learning and research.

To contribute to the transformation of society by actively promoting and advocating gender equity.

To produce graduates equipped with attitudes and skills to facilitate gender balanced perspectives for global development.

To be a socially engaged institution with high profile impact on gender issues.

Objectives:
Train students to understand the concept of gender and sex;

Help students develop the knowledge, attitudes, beliefs and skills required to be gender sensitive and to engage in appropriate behaviour;

Equip students with the knowledge and skills to monitor compliance with the gender and sexual harassment policies of the University;

Publicise and enforce the University's Sexual Harassment policy which prohibits sexual harassment and such other behaviours that violate the dignity of a human being.

Introduce possible medium of addressing issues in a way that will enhance gender equity and justice.

Facilitate speedy dispensation of justice by the Student and Staff Disciplinary Committees in respect of gender based violence.

Ensure that the university environment is gender friendly and supportive of women and men and their specific needs and roles.

Vision and Mission
University Vision and Mission on Sexual Harassment

The Gender Mainstreaming Office was established in the year 2012 after the approval of the gender policy by the University of Ibadan senate in August 2012. The Gender Policy applies to all staff, students, contractors, service providers, all visitors to the university and other groups of persons in the University, including but not limited to children, wards, and other dependants of staff.

The policy addresses issues related to teaching, learning, research, and service
Gender Policy
Gender Policy (GP)

Gender equity is increasingly prioritized as an indicator of development and global acceptance in networks of higher education. The quality and effectiveness of an institution is, in part, judged by its gender sensitivity at global level. U I's Gender Policy provides an institutional framework for all programmes and projects so that all stakeholders in the community can benefit from the initiative. It provides the bench- mark by which the laws governing the institution, relations between members of the university community, its activities in research, teaching, resource mobilization, welfare services and community involvement will be evaluated. Thus gender will become an overarching issue in all sectors of university life. The Gender Policy will also ensure that the system is transformed by the process of promoting greater gender equity.

CONCLUSION

The year 2017 was an eventful year for the Gender Mainstreaming Office, University of Ibadan. Its' commitment to creating a gender-friendly space for all led to series of sensitisation workshops organised from the beginning of the year to the end with financial support from the University of Ibadan, McArthur Foundation, Centre for General Studies and good-hearted Nigerians with the aim of educating and enlightening students and staff on gender issues and the Gender and Sexual Harassment Policy of the University of Ibadan. With these activities and support enjoyed from stakeholders in the university community, a long-lasting foundation has been laid for the emergence of an enduring gender-sensitive and gender-friendly institution in Nigeria. The Gender Mainstreaming Office aims at improving the aspect of research, advocacy, mentoring, liaising with external bodies and training of peer-educators in 2018.
